President's Message

On behalf of the Membership, Executive Council and Staff of Saskatchewan Command I would like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to everyone who makes this book possible each and every year. It is only one of the many ways the Legion pays tribute to those who have served but it is still vital to what we do.

The Legion stands for Veterans, Remembrance and Community. The Military Service Recognition Book brings all 3 of those pillars into light. Each year we receive many different submissions and the joy we get from reading the individual stories is met with great pride.

We encourage everyone to submit photos and stories of the brave men and women who served or are currently serving our nation and our community. We accept any and all Veterans of the Military and RCMP and hope to continue to pay our respect through this book each year forward.

If you know of any Veteran that needs support, please reach out to your local Legion Branch so we can help them.

I would like to extend my deepest thanks to all Veterans for the sacrifices they made to promote a free and safe country. We Will Remember Them.

Keith Andrews
Provincial President
RCL Saskatchewan Command

Thank you

for your service.

WHAT DOES THE LEGION DO?

Veterans | Remembrance | Community

The Royal Canadian Legion (RCL) defines a Veteran as any person who is serving or who has honourably served in the Canadian Armed Forces, the Commonwealth or its wartime allies, or as a Regular Member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP), or as a Peace Officer in a Special Duty Area or on a Special Duty Operation, or who has served in the Merchant Navy or Ferry Command during wartime. The RCL serves Veterans and their families by providing support, referrals, representation, advocacy and financial assistance free of charge, Legion member or not.

The RCL is made up of three essential pillars – Veterans, Remembrance & Community

Saskatchewan Command is the Saskatchewan division of the Royal Canadian Legion. The Saskatchewan Command head office is located in the city of Regina and works closely with its Executive Council, 165 Provincial Branches, members and communities around the Province to support Veterans, Remembrance and Community.

“Remembering yesterday. Serving today. Adapting for tomorrow.”

Veterans

Veterans are encouraged to reach out to their local Legion Branch for any kind of assistance or support that is needed. This can refer to something physical, medical, environmental, emotional, psychological and much more. Through the Branch, the Veteran will be put in contact with a Branch Service Officer. Any information shared with a Service Officer is and always will remain confidential. Veterans can also contact the Provincial Service Officers (PSO) located at the Sask Command’s head office in Regina at 306-525-8739 or toll-free 1-866-471-8387. Service Officers conduct needs assessments based on each Veteran’s individual situation. Next a plan is developed working with the Veteran to help him or her move forward in their life. This often includes a community and team effort of businesses, health professionals and other service organizations. A plan could include a Service Officer helping a Veteran fill out paperwork or make a claim through Veterans Affairs Canada, connecting a Veteran to health or mental health professionals, help with moving or finding housing, financial assistance with bills or groceries. They also help to provide essential items that can improve a Veteran’s quality of life such as hearing aids or a wheelchair. A Service Officer can simply be a friend to talk with.

Provincial Service Officers will liaise with Veterans Affairs Canada to assist Veterans in receiving benefits they are entitled to. Our service is free of charge and available to all Veterans whether they are a Legion member or not.

Here are the Programs that are currently available through Saskatchewan Command;

Leave the Streets Behind – This is the Legion’s National homeless Veterans program. The program’s mission is to reach out to homeless Veterans and those at-risk of homelessness and provide them with immediate financial assistance and support. It also connects them with social and community services to establish a long-term solution to meet their needs. Sask Command works closely with Veterans Affairs Canada, shelters and community organizations to get Veterans off the street and into temporary and/or long-term accommodations. Through the Poppy Fund, housing support is provided through financial assistance for items such as first and last month’s rent, rental arrears and furnishings.

Wellness Program - This new program was designed to assist Veterans in their journey to wellness. While insurance plans and Veterans Affairs Canada can offer treatment benefits for psychiatric and physical conditions, rarely will they cover activities that are not of a medical nature such as a gym pass, yoga class or use of a sweat lodge. There is a never-ending list of wellness activities and initiatives that could be beneficial to someone based on their needs. The assistance provided in this program helps the Veteran by reducing their symptoms. Taking better care of wellness can help to result in reducing symptoms such as stress, anxiety, depression and PTSD.

PAWS for Veterans – PAWS for Veterans serves two main purposes; to raise funds to provide Service Dogs to Saskatchewan Veterans and raising public awareness and education about Service Dogs. Through this program the Legion sponsors trained service dogs and assists to pair them with qualifying Veterans and their families. As the use of service dogs expands into many medical areas, there is a growing need for the general public to understand the role of these highly specialized dogs with their handlers. Some types of specialized training can include; PTSD, seizure, mobility assistance, diabetic alert, hearing assistance, heart attack & stroke and much more.

Mental Health First Aid Veteran Community – This thirteen-hour Course focuses on the basics but is also tailored to the needs of Veterans and the people who care for, and about them. The program is designed to help members of the Veteran Community developing a mental health problem or experiencing a mental health crisis. It does not train people to become counsellors or therapists and just like with physical first aid, we need to ensure that those most in contact with members of the Veteran Community can identify an emerging mental health problem and respond effectively in the event of a crisis. Who should become certified in this course? Veterans, family members, relatives, friends, volunteers and other caring community members, former RCMP members, health professionals and providers of Veteran services

OSI-CAN – OSI-CAN is an Operational Stress Injury/Post-Traumatic Stress Support Initiative. Created in January 2016, as a partnership between the RCL Sask Command and the Canadian Mental Health Association Sask Division. “Recovery is the process of gaining control over one’s life and the direction that one wants that life to go.”

Remembrance

Poppy Campaign – Every year, from the last Friday of October to November 11th tens of millions of Canadians wear a Poppy as a visual pledge to honour Canada’s Veterans and remember those who have sacrificed for the freedoms we enjoy today. While the Poppy is distributed freely to all who wish to wear one, the Legion gratefully accepts donations to the Poppy Fund. The Poppy Campaign is very much a local initiative, conducted by Legion Branches in cities, towns and communities across the country. Donations collected during the Poppy Campaign are held in Trust at the Branch level to directly support Veterans and their families within their community and to help ensure Canadians ‘never forget’. The RCL, since its inception in 1926, has become known for its annual organization of the November 11th Remembrance Day Services and Events. The Poppy Campaign also features a new Digital Poppy. The Digital Poppy can be found online at www.mypoppy.ca. Canadians who donate online will receive a Digital Poppy in Remembrance of a Veteran of their choosing.

Let us honour the spirit of courageous men and women who have fallen in the service of our country. These brave souls come from all walks of life and from every corner of this great country. They were fathers, sons, mothers and daughters; they were members of our families, our friends and our neighbours. They were ordinary people until they were asked to make extraordinary sacrifices in times of war.

We are humbled and grateful for their sacrifices in the service of our country. We appreciate their courage, their dedication, and their commitment to peace and to the rights and freedom of mankind.

On behalf of the City of Swift Current...

We honour you and give special acknowledgement to the Royal Canadian Legion

Poster & Literary Contest – For over 50 years, the RCL has sponsored annual Poster & Literary Contests that are open to all students in the Canadian School System. The students who participate in these contests continue to promote the tradition of Remembrance amongst Canadians. Contests start at the Branch level in October, with winning submissions moving up the Legion ladder. Eventually fourteen entries from Saskatchewan Students are submitted to The Legion Foundation in Ottawa for judging. The names and entries of the National winners are published in a booklet sent out by Dominion Command. First Place Winners are displayed in the Canadian War Museum from July 1st until May 1st of the following year. Second Place Winners and any honourable mentions are displayed in the foyer of the House of Commons during the annual Remembrance Day period. The Legion also sponsors a trip to Ottawa for the Senior Winners to attend the National Remembrance Day Service where they can place a wreath on behalf of the youth of Canada. During this time, students are given the opportunity to meet and visit with the Governor General.

Teaching Guide –The RCL has created the Teaching Guide to assist Primary and Secondary Schools with teaching students about the tradition of Remembrance and our Military History. The Guide is there to help Canada's Educators develop an understanding and appreciation for Remembrance Day and encourage youth to participate. The Guide includes concise notes on Canadian Military History, notes on the RCL, important Canadian symbols, stories, songs and poems containing a Remembrance theme, information about the Poppy Campaign and how the money donated is used, National Poster and Literary Contest information, as well as suggested School Remembrance activities.

R.E.D. Shirt Friday – Join us every Friday as we show support for our troops by wearing RED. T-Shirts and Hoodies are available to purchase through your local Branch or at the Saskatchewan Command head office. Sizes Small to 5X-Large are available.

“Remembering Everyone Deployed”

The Military Service Recognition Book - All Veterans, families and branches are encouraged to submit pictures and short stories for inclusion in one of these commemorative books, free of charge. Please consider completing a form on your loved one and send it to our head office along with a picture of the person to be included. A Provincial telephone appeal also takes place on a yearly basis to request support for this project. Businesses will be asked to purchase advertising space and private citizens will be contacted as well to request support for this important initiative of the Sask Command. Proceeds raised will be used by the Legion to improve services to Veterans and the more than 200 communities that they serve throughout the Province.

Last Post – Legion Magazine publishes the Last Post annually during the Remembrance Day period. This free service recognizes those who have served their Country and allows readers to learn of the passing of Comrades with whom they served. Last Post is reserved for Ordinary Members of the RCL at the time of death, RCL Life Members who were previously Ordinary Members and Canadian War Veterans who were not Legion Members at the time of their death. The RCL relies on Branches to provide the Last Post information. Entries are also added to the searchable Last Post database at www.legionmagazine.com.

Thomega Entertainment Presents: Canada Remembers – Thomega's Premier Documentary (one of seven war related) produced since 2000, Canada Remembers: A Veterans Reunion aired nationally on various productions. This project has earned recognition nation-wide for its in-depth and sensitive approach to our Canadian War Veterans. The program was endorsed by the Deputy Prime Minister Herb Gray with a special public presentation made to the producers. The program is now a key curriculum tool in Schools across the Country. During 2002-2005, Thomega Produced a thirteen-part Television Series (49 shows total), titled Entertainment West.

Branches also continuously promote Remembrance by maintaining the many Cenotaphs, Monuments and Graves of Veterans throughout the Province.

The Naming of New Seed Varieties Will Honour Veterans

FP Genetics Inc. and The Royal Canadian Legion, Saskatchewan Command, are pleased to announce a new collaboration that will seek to honour veterans and highlight the sacrifices they have made in service of community and country. "The legislation that applies to naming plant varieties operates on the principle of "One Variety - One Name". This affords us a unique, timeless and global opportunity to recognize veterans for their contributions to Canada by naming new crop varieties in their honour. Symbolically, these variety namesake's will further contribute to the global community through high quality food production, which Canadian farmers are known for" says Chris Churko, CEO of FP Genetics. As part of this collaboration, The Legion's Saskatchewan Command will accept and review applications from military and RCMP veterans and their families, and make recommendations to FP Genetics for variety names. As part of the submission, applicants will submit biographies and the stories they wish FP Genetics and Saskatchewan Command to share with the community. Once a variety bearing a veteran's name is officially registered, the public will be able to access variety information via FP Genetics communications and follow links to the Legion's website to learn more about the person behind the name, their contributions to community and country, and the great services the Royal Canadian Legion - Saskatchewan Command offers in support of veterans and first responders. The Royal Canadian Legion - Saskatchewan Command and FP Genetics are excited to release the name of the first veteran chosen in this collaboration, Harold Hague. The official variety name is AB Hague, which is a new high yielding feed barley bred by Dr. Pat Juskiw and team at the Field Crop Development Centre, Olds College.

MUSKEG LAKE CREE NATION

Muskeg Lake's History

Muskeg Lake Cree Nation has a long and rich cultural history. First established in 1881, the core reserve is still home to approximately 367 community members (MLCN Health Records, June 2011). 1,481 additional members live across Saskatchewan and Canada, yet they are still proud to call Muskeg Lake their home and community.

We Are Our History

Our veterans have played a significant role in the ways we have developed as a community. When community members enlisted for WWI, WWII, the Korean conflict and Peace-time service, they came back changed—not only by war, but by having their eyes opened to the ways of the world outside the reserve. This shift in perspective has forever changed the way we see ourselves as a community.

In the second half of the 20th century, two agreements—Asimakaniseekan Askiy in 1988 and the Treaty Land Entitlement (TLE) Trust in 1992—led to the growth of Muskeg Lake. These agreements generated a need for the community to reach outward to surrounding governments and municipalities and bring us into a process of community consultation, something which had never before happened. The TLE Trust led to the acquisition of urban and agricultural lands, which fostered economic development for the community through land leasing and entrepreneurial growth.

Today, we look back on a proud history that we owe in great part to our veterans and to the community leaders who have changed the way we see ourselves as a community and in the larger world.

Table of a Fallen Soldier

The tradition of setting a separate table in honour of our prisoners of war and missing comrades has been in place since the end of the Vietnam War. The manner in which this table is decorated is full of special symbols to help us remember our brothers and sisters in arms.

The Table of a Fallen Soldier is set in the hall or dining room, where guests can see it, but where it will not be in the way.

The table is smaller than the others symbolizing the everlasting concern and remembrance for our fallen comrades.

The white tablecloth draped evenly represents the purity of their motives while answering the call of duty.

The empty chair

representing the missing comrade.

The single place setting represents your wish that the fallen men and women of the armed forces could be present at the happy occasion with you.

The white candle representing the light of hope/light of life.

The single red rose represents the blood shed/the families who love and keep faith with the men and women who serve.

The ribbon represents loyalty in waiting for those who are serving away from home, while a red ribbon symbolizes the memory of and search for those missing in action.

The slices of lemon on the bread plate represent the bitter loss of the life of the fallen soldier.

The salt upon the bread plate represents the tears of their families.

The inverted wine glass placed to the right of the plate, represents the fact that the fallen comrade will not be able to participate in the happy toasts at this event.

We Shall Not Forget

Honouring those who served and continue to serve

Saskatchewanians have served their country in times of war, military conflict, and peace. The Government of Saskatchewan is proud to honour the sacrifice of these brave men and women through practical ways such as the Saskatchewan Veteran Service Club Support Program. The funding from this program will help keep Saskatchewan Legions operational and make the necessary improvements to continue serving our heroes.

This program is delivered in collaboration with the Royal Canadian Legion, Saskatchewan Command and the Army, Navy, and Air Force Veterans (ANAVETS), Saskatchewan Provincial Command. Registered, non-profit veteran service clubs based in Saskatchewan were eligible to apply for grants up to $25,000.

These grants are being put to good use with members of veteran service organizations benefiting through facility projects, upgrades, renovations or repairs, access to programming, meetings, and events. The grant money could also be used toward special events, programs and activities that engage the public and advance the work of veteran service organizations.

This increased commitment to Saskatchewan veterans and their family members will continue to strengthen the long-term sustainability of Saskatchewan's service clubs who not only honour veterans on November 11th, but all year long.

Why do we Wear a Poppy?

Why do we wear a poppy of red?
Is it to remind us of all the bloodshed?
Do we wear it to remember the soldiers that died?
For the ones that never got to say goodbye?

Do we wear a poppy to commemorate a grave?
Or do we wear it to recall the young and the brave?
We wear a poppy to show we care,
Although we cannot understand the wounds or despair.

Do we wear a crimson flower upon our chest,
To remind us for a moment that we have been blessed?
Blessed because young men gave up their lives,
Walked away to the sound of their families cries.

Blessed that we live in a country that's free,
The land of opportunity for you and for me.
Blessed that a simple poppy helps us recall,
That we truly want for nothing at all.

So many soldiers paid the ultimate price,
They sacrificed their lives for our freedom and our rights.
Poppies and poems, moments and prayers.
Hold fast the memories of those who despair.

Poppies lovingly laid on the tomb of the unknown,
Remind us that the soldier was one of our own.
Commemorate their service and recognize their deeds,
Support the Legion poppy campaign and veterans in need.

The poppy became a symbol in 1921,
It reminds us each year of what veterans have done.
100 years later the meaning remains,
Honoring soldiers in the fields where they lay.

ADAIR, William T.

WWII

William was born in Oxbow, Saskatchewan in 1918 and enlisted with the Royal Canadian Air Force in Regina, Saskatchewan. He served in Canada, England, India and Burma. He passed away in 2001 and was a member of Souris Branch 60 of The Royal Canadian Legion.

ALEXANDER, Robert

WWI

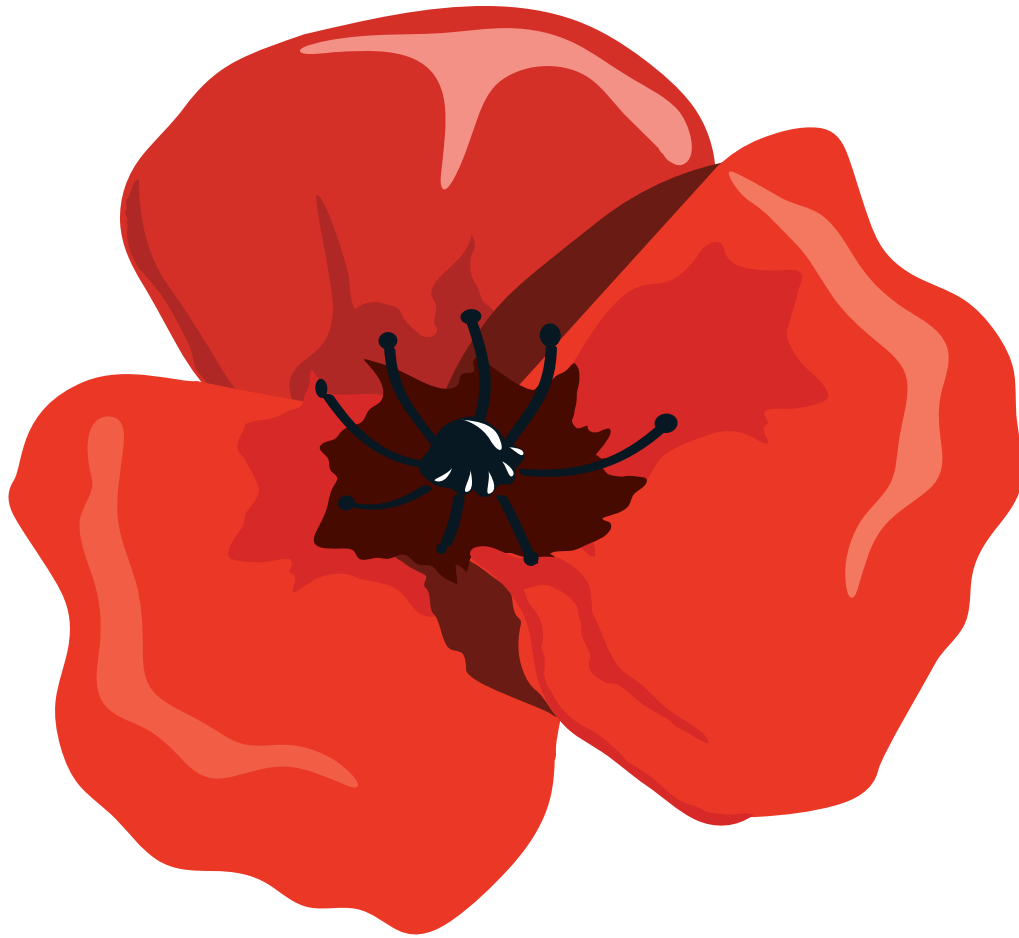

Robert was born on November 5, 1886, in Lisburn, Northern Ireland. Not much is known about how and why he came to Canada. His next of kin was his brother William of Belfast. His service record mentions his mother Annie, also of Belfast, but his father's whereabouts were unknown. Robert indicated that his address was Conquest when he enlisted in Saskatoon on May 31, 1916, at the age of 29. His payments were sent to Conquest. His occupations were gasoline engineer and farmer. He left Halifax for England aboard the Carpathia on April 9, 1917. Originally attached to the 210th Battalion, he served in France with the First Canadian Mounted Rifles. He was wounded in the mouth on October 29, 1917 and was hospitalized from October 29 to January 9, 1918. He returned to Canada on March 13, 1919 and received his discharge papers in Regina on March 28. His papers indicated his intention to live in Conquest following his discharge.

ALLEN, Robert

WWI

Born to James and Mary Allen in Londonderry, Ireland on June 6, 1889, Robert Allen was working as a farmer in the Conquest area when he enlisted in Saskatoon on March 15, 1916 at the age of 26. He and his brother Jack had come to Conquest to work in 1912. He served with the 183rd Infantry in France building bridges and repairing roads. In total, he served three years and three months, earning a War Service Badge. His service record indicates that he was hospitalized for 33 days in 1918. After his discharge in Quebec City on August 31, 1919, he and his wife Matilda (Hilda) filed for a homestead in the Fox Valley area. They had four children: Mary Margo, Hazel Jean, Stanley and Eileen. In 1953, he and Hilda sold their land and moved to Surrey, BC. After Hilda died in 1959, Robert moved back to Saskatchewan. He died in 1972 at the Pineview Lodge in Nipawin.

Thank You.

We are proud to support and honour
the Saskatchewan Veterans who serve our country.

AMES, William

WWI

William Ames, born on August 29, 1886, in Brussels, Huron County, Ontario, came west with his parents, two brothers and one sister in 1900. His parents, William Martin and Isabelle Ames, settled near Milestone. A tall man at 6 feet 3 1/2 inches, William was farming in the Conquest area when he enlisted on May 19, 1916 at the age of 29.

He was assigned to the Special Service Company MD # 12. On January 31, 1917, he was hospitalized at the General Hospital in Moose Jaw with influenza. The disease obviously took its toll; and, never having served overseas as he intended, he was discharged from the CEF on May 9, 1917 as being medically unfit.

William married Alexandria (Lexie) Mae McKinnon on April 15, 1918, in Winnipeg. In 1921, he and Lexie were living on his father's farm near Meeting Creek, Alberta. The couple had two sons, Donald and Charles. William died at the age of 72 on March 21, 1958 and is buried in the Meeting Creek

AMY, Glen Alvey

WWII

Glen Alvey Amy was born on February 21, 1921, on the family farm south of Conquest. His parents were Elgin and Eileen Amy. He had two sisters and two brothers. In 1941, Glen attended Normal School (Teachers College) in Moose Jaw and was teaching in a small country school near Wiseton.

He joined the army in 1942. He was attached to the Three Rivers Tank Regiment, spending a short time in England before service in North Africa, then in Italy and Holland during the Liberation which began in September 1944. He received his discharge in 1946.

After his return, he furthered his education and started a lengthy and rewarding career as a teacher. Glen married a colleague, Hazel Earl. His teaching career took him to Sturgis, Rosetown and Saskatoon.

The couple raised three children. He also earned journeyman papers in carpentry. As a career teacher, he was well thought of by all who knew him. He was honoured at his retirement with these words: "He has the genuine humility of an honest man who knows much and carefully chooses his words."

AUPPERLE, John Henry

WWI

J. H. Aupperle was born on May 8, 1895, in Adair, Iowa, USA. His father was John M. Aupperle. The family lived on a farm in Keeler, Saskatchewan. John was a firefighter before he enlisted in the military.

He enlisted on March 29, 1916. He joined the 128th Battalion in Moose Jaw. He was a Private and served for 11 ½ months with the 128th Battalion. He was discharged on demobilization and entitled to wear two gold casualty stripes: August 5, 1917 and June 27, 1918. He was 24 years old with two gunshot wounds on the back and neck. He survived the gunshot wounds. One penetrated his neck. Luckily, it hit him right below the left ear and right above his vertebrae and he survived.

He was granted leave from January 6, 1919 to January 21, 1919. He was entitled to wear three blue chevrons to state his rank. When he returned home, his family was ecstatic to see him. He married and had a family.

His granddaughter, Geraldine (Aupperle) Kalmakoff, said: "He said he couldn't watch any war movies because it brought back too many horrible memories about being trapped and under fire. The trenches were the worst because during many of the rainstorms, the trenches would fill with mud, you would be up to your thigh trudging through the mud often tripping over other fallen soldiers." He did not like loud noises and was incredibly quiet. She said he did not like saying even a single word about the war because he did not want to relive that memory.

He survived for many years after the war ended and had to get his leg amputated due to gangrene. In old age, he could not hear out of his left ear even with a hearing aid.

He was married to Myra Froot and they had five children: four boys, Hugh, Jack, Lloyd, Reg and one girl, Beatrice.

BADGER, Archibald

WWI

Archibald Badger enlisted in Outlook on December 18, 1916, at the age of nineteen. He was farming at the time. He was born to Aaron William and Agnes Badger in Carman, Manitoba on June 26, 1897, a younger brother to Earl William who also fought in World War I. He was living in Conquest at the time of his enlistment. He served with the 249th Battalion until his discharge in the City of Moose Jaw in February 1919. His service record indicates that his service was in Canada.

Archibald married Evelyn Isabell Leckie on December 24, 1941 in Winnipeg. The couple moved to Seattle where Archibald was a salesman for G&H Distributors. He died suddenly on March 28, 1955 and is buried in Evergreen-Washelli Memorial Park. At the time of his passing, he was survived by his wife and two sisters.

Lance Corporal Jim Barnett and Muriel (Bain) Barnett

A Canadian Veteran and His War Bride

Early in World War II, Muriel Bain was a young Scots office worker. She lived at home with her parents in Edinburgh's suburbs, commuting each workday into the city.

Her employer, Scottish Motor Traction, provided commuter-bus service from the Edinburgh's suburbs to the offices, shops and factories downtown. Her job was congenial and fulfilling, and Muriel felt content for the moment.

Muriel's older sister suggested her sibling could contribute to the war effort and also broaden her social life by volunteering at the city's Canada canteen – a drop-in spot for Canadian military service personnel in the city. There she met LCpl Jim Barnett, a young rifleman from Saskatchewan, Canada. A prairie farm lad, Jim had joined the Regina Rifles. Initial interest blossomed into full-blown romance. By the time Jim had been repatriated to Canada for discharge, the couple was engaged, with Muriel's parents' blessing.

Jim sailed home via Halifax in April 1946. Muriel followed two months later, sailing on a tramp passenger-cargo freighter - the first Halifax-bound berth available. A new friend, Helen, accompanied her. Helen also had a fiancé waiting in Saskatchewan.

After an eight-day voyage, Muriel's ship docked in Halifax. Next came a five-day passenger train trip west to Saskatoon.

Jim met Muriel in Saskatoon, while Helen joined her beau. Jim drove his bride-to-be nearly two hundred kilometers west across open prairie to Jim's parent's farm in the Seagram School District, north of the Village of Unity.

At first, prairie farm life was quite a shock for this Scottish city girl. The main house had no electricity and no indoor plumbing (these amenities would come later). The "privy" was out back. Well water was carried in for washing, cooking, laundry, and baths taken in a galvanized tub set out in front of the cookstove. Daily, meals had to be cooked and served, livestock fed, clothing mended, and cows milked. Muriel still recalls the many hours of patient help and instruction Jim's mother provided. Jim's dad, a wounded World War I Canadian Army Veteran who had lost a foot in combat, had moved to British Columbia – a climate more congenial to his failing health. Jim's mother had returned to the Barnett family's prairie farm to help Jim and Muriel get off to a good start, as the couple took over the family's mixed grain-and-cattle operation. Very soon, Jim and Muriel were married in Saskatoon.

On their farm, Jim and Muriel worked hard and did well. Three children were born - two daughters and a son. In 1985, after nearly forty years together on the land, Jim and Muriel retired to a neat bungalow in nearby Unity.

The following years were not so kind. By the early 1990's, Jim's health had collapsed. Dementia had made life at home unsafe for Jim, despite Muriel's best efforts. Jim was moved to the UNIMAC (Unity Macklin) Pioneer's Lodge - a facility providing graduated levels of care. Eventually Jim passed away there in 1997.

Alone in her Unity home, her children grown but still living nearby, plucky Muriel continued an impressive volunteer service career. Over the years, she has energetically served and sometimes led; the Unity Branch #090 Auxiliary, the Rebekka Lodge, Unity's Courtesy Car, Meals on Wheels, Unity United Church, Unity Hospital Auxiliary and Unity's United Church Women for Unity. Muriel has been a benevolent cyclone, helping "wherever and whenever."

In 2000, Unity named Muriel Barnett "Citizen of the Year."

Pretty good effort from a plucky, hard-working Scottish lass who still loves her Canadian home!

BODDIE, Alexander Taylor

WWI

Alexander was born to James and Margaret Boddie on April 3, 1895 in Aberdeen, Scotland. He arrived in Halifax, Canada on February 23, 1913 aboard the Scotian. His immigration papers indicate that he intended to join his brother on a farm. When he enlisted with the 53rd Battalion in Saskatoon on June 29, 1915, at the age of 20, he was working on a farm near Conquest and staying with the Joseph Lorimer family as a lodger. He left for England on April 9, 1916 and was subsequently posted to France beginning September 9, 1916. Just three months later, he was killed in action while with the 14th Battalion, Quebec Regiment, at Thiepval Ridge during the Battles of the Somme Campaign. In the fierce fighting, Private Boddie was first reported "missing," then "missing in action, presumed dead." The official date for his death was declared to be September 26, 1916. He had been in France only seventeen days. Alexander is buried at Courcellette British Cemetery near Albert, France. He is also commemorated in his Scottish hometown where his parents lived. His name is on a granite Memorial Arch that leads to the Port Errol Kirkyard.

BODDIE, James

WWI

Brother to Robert David Boddie and Alexander Taylor Boddie of Conquest, and son of James and Margaret Boddie of Ivan Cottage, Port Errol, Scotland, James Boddie was born on August 7, 1886. Before he immigrated to Canada, he served three years with the Highlanders Longside, Scotland. It appears that he arrived in Halifax, Canada on April 22, 1910, at the age of 23. James Boddie found employment with the Bank of Montreal in Winnipeg. Immigration records show that he returned to Scotland to visit family but arrived back in Canada aboard the SS Athenia on September 12, 1914, "returning to my home in Canada to resume my former position" with the Bank of Montreal. He was working as a bank clerk in Winnipeg when he was drafted on July 6, 1918, in Winnipeg, at the age of 31. He trained at Camp Petawawa with the 34th Fort Garry Horse Regiment. He was discharged in Winnipeg on January 28, 1919. All of his service was in Canada.

BODDIE, Robert David

He sailed from Montreal on May 29, 1915 and saw service in both England and France. He was promoted to Corporal on July 15, 1916 and Sergeant on October 4, 1916.

Like many of his companions, he suffered from health problems in the trenches: influenza in 1915 and a contusion to his right foot in May 1916. Robert David Boddie received the Military Cross on November 19, 1917. The citation stated: "For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He fought four guns with great skill and determination. Although heavily shelled and his guns damaged, he repaired and kept them in action throughout the day until they could be replaced. By his courage and cheerfulness under the most trying circumstances, he set a splendid example to his men."

When he was discharged in Toronto at the age of 30 on February 11, 1919, he had a shrapnel wound on his upper chest dating from 1917. His discharge papers indicated his intention to return to Conquest. It is known that he visited relatives in Scotland in 1921 but returned to Canada in 1922 to continue work with Joseph Lorimer in Conquest. He also worked as a bank clerk in Canada but returned to Scotland in 1926 to live with his mother Margaret after his father James died. He married Helen Maggie Bremner. CHARTRAND, Charles William

In total, Charles William Chartrand served four months in Canada, eight months in England and three years and eight months in France. After his discharge, he returned to Conquest. CROCKETT, Emma “Jean”

WWII

Jean (Head) Crockett was born in Conquest on November 5, 1922. Her parents were Henry and Dora (Sibbald) Head. Her father served Canada in World War I.

Jean Crockett served in the Royal Canadian Air Force beginning December 12, 1943 and was “Honourably Released” on November 7, 1946. She was recommended as a wireless operator, obtaining top grouping; she served overseas in RFHQ from March 1946, returning to Canada in July 1946. On discharge, Jean received the War Medal 1939-1945 and Canadian Volunteer Service Medal and Clasp. Her service enlistment report says that Jean was a superior type with keen enthusiasm, self-confidence and interest in RCAF.

It is interesting to note on her application that all questions pertaining to her marital status were asked from a male perspective and did not pertain to females. She was definitely one of the early female recruits. Before enlistment, she took a business course in Winnipeg. Then she joined the Airforce taking her basic training in Ottawa, followed by training as a wireless operator in Montreal and Guelph and receiving her wireless operator certificate. Her first post was in Edmonton, then Yorkton, Winnipeg and the next posting was overseas in England. Jean travelled and was able to see a lot of London, Bournemouth, Edinburgh and southern Ireland but did not get to the continent.

Coming back to Canada, Jean was posted in Ottawa and then received her discharge. She went to Edmonton and worked with Alberta Government Telephones. She met Ken Crockett and they married in 1948. They had two children: Sharon and Ray. The family moved to Regina in 1954, then to Calgary in 1960. They stayed in Calgary to raise their family and retired there. Both Jean and Ken are deceased. Jean died on August 26, 2007, at the age of 84.

CUNNINGHAM, Charles Frederick “Fred”

WWI

Born in Lakeport, Ontario on April 29, 1887, Charles Frederick Cunningham enlisted in Saskatoon on June 26, 1916, at the age of 29. Always known as Fred, he listed his occupation as engineer and was living in Bounty at the time. He was the son of James Henry and Ellen Louise (Palmer) Cunningham. He came west in 1904, first settling in Arcola and then Bounty where he lived for the rest of his life, except for his service during World War I. Unfortunately, his service in the army was short-lived. On October 12, 1916, he was declared medically unfit at Camp Hughes. He and his wife Wilhelmina Downs Kemp had four daughters: Mabel Lenora, Margery Jane, Helen Victoria and Wilma Irene. Wilhelmina died in 1954. Charles Frederick Cunningham died on September 21, 1974, at the age of 87. He is buried in the Fertile Valley Cemetery close to Conquest.

DESCHAMPS, Joseph Adrien "Eddie"

WWII

The son of Joseph and Marie Clara Deschamps, Joseph Adrien "Eddie" Deschamps was born in Rossland, British Columbia in 1911. He had two sisters and a younger brother. The 1916 Census reports that the family had moved to Ardath. Joseph attended College Mathieu in Gravelbourg, graduating in 1929.

Always interested in flying, he had his first flight in the year he graduated. In 1932, he moved to Edmonton where he worked in an office and studied flying. By 1936, he had his commercial license and worked as a bush pilot for Consolidated Mining and Smelting in Yellowknife.

When World War II began, Eddie applied to join the RCAF. There was a delay in the reply, so he went to the USA where the Finnish Airforce was recruiting pilots for their 3 ½-month Winter War with Russia. Before he could enlist, an armistice was signed between Finland and Russia, so Eddie enlisted with the RCAF in Trenton, Ontario. While in the USA, there is an autographed photo of him with famous boxer Jack Dempsey: "To Eddie, Good Luck, Pal." He was posted with RAF Squadron 242 at Martlesham Heath in Suffolk. Squadron 242 was composed almost entirely of Canadian pilots and was unofficially called the Canadian Squadron. Eddie's Squadron 242 played a key role in the famous Battle of Britain, inflicting sixty percent of the total losses sustained by the Luftwaffe in the conflict.

Eddie was flying a single-engine Hawker Hurricane on January 17, 1941 when his aircraft crashed in a snowstorm and he was killed. He is buried at Upavon Church Cemetery in Wiltshire, England. He was 31 years old. The inscription on his gravestone reads: "He bravely fought and died for his country and for peace on Earth."

DILLMAN, Raphael "Ralph"

WWII

Ralph was born on June 27, 1919, in St. Walburg, Saskatchewan. He grew up in lower and central British Columbia and in 1938 at age nineteen came to North Star, Alberta to work.

In the spring of 1942, he was called to do his basic army training in Grande Prairie, Alberta. In October 1942, he started serving in the Army Service Corps. He was based in Vancouver, Wainwright and Calgary for short periods of time, and was then sent to Woodstock, Ontario for further training and duties. In July 1944, he was stationed in Goose Bay, Labrador. His main duty was to drive an Army supply truck and to do whatever was necessary to support the Canadian and American troops both at home and overseas.

He was discharged in 1945 and returned to North Star, Alberta where he and his wife Catherine farmed and raised their family.

Ralph passed away on February 28, 2008.

Glenn left home as a young man to buy grain for the Pioneer Grain Company in Saskatchewan and Alberta. His military service was brief since he was discharged on April 12, 1918, seven months before the Armistice. He and Linda Alvind Horning married in New Westminster on July 20, 1929. They had met when Glenn was a grain buyer in Dollard, Saskatchewan. While there, he played semi-professional baseball against American teams. The couple had two daughters: Betty Lou and Joyce Evelyn. In spite of being declared “fit” on enlistment, he was discharged 108 days later on compassionate grounds after being declared “medically unfit”. He suffered from a long-standing injury to his foot that made it almost impossible to walk on rough ground. During his time with the 249th Battalion, his conduct was declared “good”. He married Katherine Mary Twidale on August 2, 1923. They had a son and a daughter. John was a prominent businessman, at different times operating garages in both Mildred and Conquest. He was a village councillor in Mildred, as well as a member of both the Mildred Legion and Elks Lodge. John William Dishaw died on November 22, 1958 and is buried in the Mildred Cemetery.

DOCKERILL, Frederick James

WWII

Frederick was born in Fenwood, Saskatchewan in 1914. He enlisted in the Army and served with the Saskatoon Light Infantry in Italy during World War II. He was killed in action and is buried in a Canadian Cemetery in Cassino, Italy. The family homesteaded from England in 1904 on the SW-34-24-8-W2 six miles north of Fenwood. The home still stands.

DOCKERILL, John Peter “Jack”

WWII

Jack was born in Fenwood, Saskatchewan in 1921. He served in the Royal Canadian Air Force in Holland during World War II. Jack was killed in action and is buried in a Canadian Cemetery in Holland. The family homesteaded on SW-34-24-8-W2 approximately six miles north of Fenwood. The original home still stands.

DONALDSON, Winston “Gale”

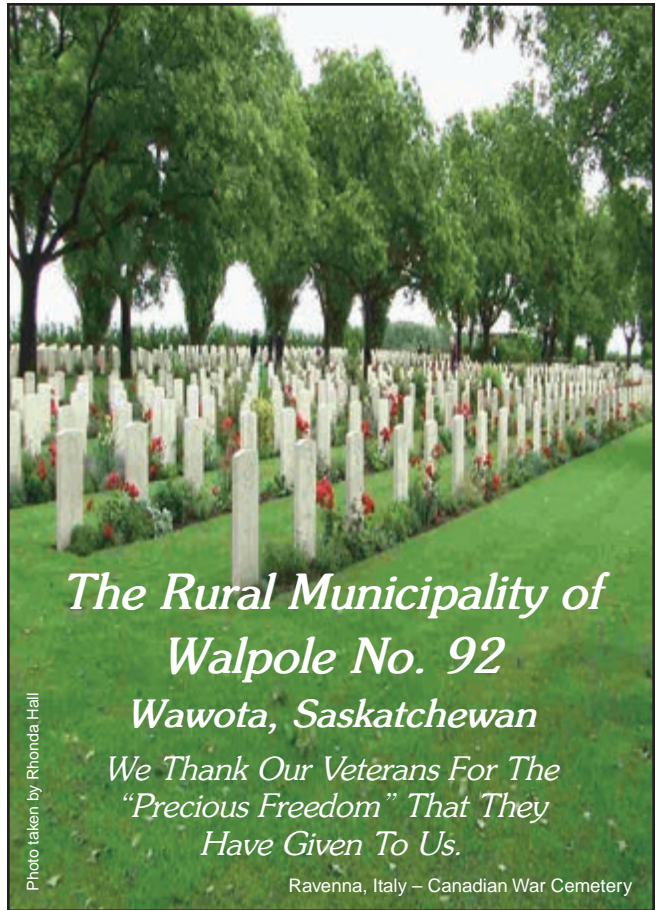

WWII

Gale was born in Saskatchewan in 1922. He entered basic training in Port Arthur in 1942 and served in New Brunswick and British Columbia with the Lanark and Scottish Renfrew Winnipeg Light Infantry. Whenever Gale talked to the family about his military service, he seemed to stress the negative aspects and to downplay his part. He finished his service, discharged because of health problems, after seeing much of Canada. Gale greatly admired those who served overseas but seemed to feel that his was not a very important part of the war effort. Years later, when involved with DVA, he received his military records. Not long before Gale died in 2009, those records were checked and it was quite amazing to see the content and the excellent remarks about his work. When he heard what had been written and the comment “Good Soldier”, it seemed to change his way of thinking about the way that he had done his duty.

FREDERICK (ROBERTS), Morfydd “Maureen”

WWII

Morfydd “Maureen” Roberts was born on June 24, 1921, in Tylorstown, Wales. She grew up near Aberystwyth in Wales and then in London, England. In 1942, she joined the Royal Air Force as a clerk-typist. She met a handsome Canadian pilot, FO Merle Frederick at a dance in London. Merle was shot down over Dresden on February 13, 1945 and was a prisoner of war. After liberation, Merle was sent to Canada for more surgery. Maureen and their baby daughter left England on the Aquitania in the spring of 1946 and then boarded a train from Halifax to Regina. She often spoke of the wonderful help the Salvation Army and the Red Cross gave the war brides on that long journey. She was grateful for joining such a wonderful family and community in Bethune. Maureen passed away on January 13, 2015.

A WAR BRIDE IN BETHUNE – 1946

Written by Maureen Frederick in 1983 for the Bethune History Book

Boarded the Aquitania with baby Donna, sailed out of Southampton, England April 25th to the tune of Auld Lang Syne. Docked in Halifax, Nova Scotia five days later, boarded the War Bride Train going west the next morning, three days and two nights later, arrived in Regina. (Very Tired).

I remember well:

The Red Cross workers, so helpful all the way.

Seeing Merle as the train came to a halt. (At last).

Meeting friends, Bethune and Regina (a Miss. M. Weir)

Meeting sister-in-law, Amy, at Moose Jaw. (This road, prairie trail??)

Arriving at Bethune, stopping at the tracks? (Checking for traffic did they say? Nothing is moving – period.)

Meeting Mother Thea and young Rae, the Ogg's coming over for tea.

Wondering would I ever be able to master that big stove.

First supper, (good cook, water in the reservoir, pump, cistern).

Merle going to haul water for Mother to wash. (Dugout?)

Being asked are you Anglican, United, or R.C., “Methodist” was my reply, and being told, you are United. (??)

Went to church, knew all the hymns. (Yes, I must be United).

Meeting Allan and Ethel, (nice people, they are talking too fast for me).

Gas lamps, mantles, stoves with pipes and drafts and that gas iron.

Purchasing a crib and carriage. (A pram and a cot, no coupons).

Having second thoughts about eating corn. (That is for chickens), Sauerkraut (smelt so strong).

The shower the Bethune ladies arranged, the tea the Anglican ladies held, the tea at Mrs. Peel's home, the Quilt the ladies of the Edward – Dilke district made. (Everyone was so caring, and they don't even know me).

Meeting Uncle Mack, Aunt Jen, Grandma Read, the Holland family. (Unforgettable people).

The 1st of July, sitting in a car watching the horse races at the finish line. One ended up on the hood of the car, “that one was wild”, (They were all wild, and the heat was getting to me).

Moving into our new home, new furniture, painting, wallpapering, etc. (The wallpaper did not want to stay on the wall).

Picking Saskatoon’s chokecherries. (They eat wild berries?)

The trip to Watrous with the Bill McLennan and Ogg families, mother Thea and Rea. (I thought it was going to be a picnic in a basket, no, they worked hard at frying chicken, potato salad, homemade ice cream, strawberries, etc.)

Harvest time, and those hot winds. (Everybody is talking harvest, crops, etc., all Dutch to me), canning in the heat, and those dill pickles.

The first snow, storm windows. (A terrible closed in feeling).

Hallowe’en, (Guy Fawkes Day? No that is November 5th).

Remembrance Day, November 11th. (people are moving at the two minutes silence).

Men in overalls and carrying guns. (Deer hunting? – Wild Deer?)

Trying to adjust to, Prairie Chicken, Wild Duck, Deer steaks, etc. “Just enough for you and me”. (It was mostly M.O. and thee).

Seeing my first coyote. (Don’t tell me they eat those too?)

Wondering why people were carrying Corn Brooms. (Curling?)

Been told I had better purchase over-stockings. (Me, NEVER, but I did).

My first Xmas, everything plentiful, making Xmas cake with Mother Thea, real Holly from the T.M. Eddy’s – so many cards.

Popcorn for the tree, opening gifts on Xmas Eve. (Tradition: Ethel and Allen made it across the valley, the togetherness of this family, my family had not been together through all the war years).

The New Year’s Eve dance at the hall. (Auld Lang Syne being played again).

Watching Merle play in the Bonspiel. (I am so cold just watching).

My first sleigh ride, everybody dressed me up so warmly. (So they thought, I am sure I came close to being frozen, period! Then it seemed in half an hour, it was time to start back again, my first and last sleigh ride).

Mother Thea’s cold remedy, “take this liniment in hot water, and a cold pack around your neck”. (Tasted like horse liniment, please help me Lord).

Wishing the snow would go away, but can I take all the heat again?

These are a few of my “Recollections”, but one does not adjust to them alone. A caring Frederick family, wonderful neighbours, especially the Oggs and the community of Bethune, this one War Bride tried very hard to adjust.

He was honourably discharged with the rank of Private on April 2, 1946 in Calgary, Alberta. He received the Italy Star, the 1939-1945 Star and the Canadian Volunteer Service Medal and Clasp. He was a member of The Royal Canadian Legion Branch 11 in Vermilion. James passed away in 1977.

FRUMERIE, Louis Alvin

WWI

Louis was born in Jamestown, North Dakota on June 7, 1897. He and his father travelled to Conquest in 1912 where the father Charles Albanus Frumerie was a blacksmith. A year later his wife Olga (Krusell) and the rest of the Frumerie children joined Charles and Louis. Both Charles and Olga are buried in the Outlook Cemetery. Louis was living in Conquest as a farmer when he enlisted in Regina at the age of 20 on November 6, 1917. He left from Montreal and arrived in England on August 15, 1918. His service record indicates his overseas service was in England with the Canadian Railway Troops Division. Canadian railway units played a major role in the construction and maintenance of railways of all gauges for the British Army. Like so many other soldiers and civilians in 1918, he was hospitalized with influenza (Spanish Flu). His convalescence took place at a military hospital in Kirkdale, a suburb of Liverpool. Louis received his discharge papers in Regina on April 8, 1919. He indicated his intention to return to Conquest. He married Victoria Monroe in Saskatoon on October 31, 1924. Little additional information is available except that Louis lived in Oakland, California in the 1940s where he worked as a kitchen helper.

GARAND, Robert "Bob"

WWII

Bob was born in Storthoaks, Saskatchewan in 1912. He enlisted in the Navy and served onboard HMCS LCI(L)-118 in Canada, on the High Seas and in England during World War II. The LCI(L)-118 had the distinction of leading the landing flotilla into Juno Beach, Normandy on the first wave of D-Day on June 6, 1944. The Landing Craft received hull damage from the mines and was stuck amidst the chaos at Juno Beach from 11am to 7pm. On the return across the channel, the pumps had to run at full power to keep the craft from sinking. There was little sleep that night. He was awarded the Mid Oak Leaf and the French Legion of Honour – Knight. He was a member of The Royal Canadian Legion Branch 19. Bob passed away in 2016.

HAGAN, Henry Edward Philip “Harry”

WWI

Henry was born in England on August 23, 1894, the son of Henry and Annie Elizabeth (Ballamy) Hagan. According to his enlistment documents, he came to Canada with his parents in 1908. Henry was married to Ada Irene McLaughlin and living with her parents in Conquest when he enlisted in Outlook on January 17, 1916. The couple had two children, both born in Conquest: Beryl Annie and Robert Edward (who was an RCAF pilot killed in action in World War II). Henry trained in Moose Jaw and served in England, beginning on August 24, 1916. Because he suffered from childhood bronchial asthma, which was aggravated by the damp English climate, most of his service was confined to base duty. The asthma became so severe that he could not perform his duties and he was discharged. He departed for Canada aboard the S.S. Grampian on February 22, 1917. Following his discharge, Henry worked as a salesman for a store in Wolseley before the family moved to Smith Falls, Ontario where his parents resided. He became a postal worker and lived in Ontario for 40 years of his life. Henry Hagan passed away on November 16, 1976 in Smith Falls, at the age of 74.

HAGAN, Robert Edward

WWII

Robert, son of Ada and Henry Hagan, was born in Conquest on January 17, 1923. He attended school in Conquest until his parents moved to Wolseley. He enjoyed playing hockey and baseball. He was living in Deveron and training at the Regina Youth Training Centre as an airframe mechanic when he enlisted in the RCAF on August 31, 1941. Robert was posted with Squadron 428 of the RAF at the Dalton Air Base when he and four crew members of a Lancaster bomber were sent on a night raid over Duisberg on May 21, 1943. The average age of the crew was 22. They were part of a huge bombing raid that involved 63 Wellington bombers, 36 Sterlings and three other Lancasters. Robert's plane took off from Dalton at 22:05 hours as part of plan for extensive laying of mines. Squadron 428 records report that the aircraft was "lost without a trace." Robert, age 20, is officially listed as killed in action on May 23, 1943 and is commemorated at Runnymede Memorial, along with over 20,000 men and women of the air forces, who were lost in World War II during operations from bases in the United Kingdom and North and Western Europe, and who have no known grave.

HAGEN, Ole A.

WWII

Ole was born in Cumberland House, Saskatchewan on May 9, 1927, the fifth of seven brothers. During World War II, his four older brothers had enlisted in the Canadian Forces and at the age of seventeen, he also enlisted. He was assigned to basic training with the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry at CFB Shilo and Fort Garry, MB. Just as his Company B was assigned to go overseas, Ole was confined to infirmary and before he recovered, the war ended. Ole was a lifelong member of The Royal Canadian Legion Red Deer Branch 35 for 35 years and passed away on October 15, 2009. As per his final wishes, his remains were donated to the University of Calgary for scientific research.

Prince Albert Elks Lodge #58 is proud to honour and thank all who served our nation in both times of war and in keeping the peace.

HEBERT (McCONNELL), Catherine Grace

WWII

Catherine was born in Girvin, Saskatchewan, in 1923. She enlisted in World War II with the Royal Canadian Air Force in 1942 and served in Canada. She passed away in 2006.

HEDESHEIMER (HEAD), Heinie Arthur “Henry” “Head” WWI

Henry Arthur Heddeshaimer was born in Hamiota, Manitoba on December 12, 1892 and moved to Conquest in 1912. He enlisted in Outlook on December 15, 1915 in the 128th Battalion, Company “B”. During his training he was given leave to return to Conquest to allow him the opportunity to wind up his businesses.

On August 26, 1916, he sailed to England aboard the SS Grampian. From his “Duty’s Call Soldiers Diary,” he detailed his stint in England where he spent most of his time training, sight-seeing and visiting relatives. On May 24, 1917, he sailed to France. He remarked on June 28 that he spent some time at the Vatlors-au-Bois Cemetery looking for the grave of friend Roy Cavanaugh from Conquest who was killed in action on February 3, 1917. In August, he tells of coming under heavy machine gunfire and bombardments, shells coming in at 20 a minute. Henry spent most of his days in trenches with little food and never enough good water. He writes about the carnage around him and burying many members of his troop. He was hit with shrapnel on November 14. On December 4, he sailed to Dover and commenced his recovery. When in France, he joined with the 46th Battalion and was promoted to Sergeant.

Heinie returned to Canada in May 1919. After visiting Hamiota, his birthplace, he returned to Conquest and resumed his businesses. He was the editor, typesetter, printer and distributor of “The Fertile Valley Enterprise.” He married a local girl, Dora Sibbald of Ardath on November 3, 1921. He legally changed his name from Heddeshaimer to Head in 1941. (Because of anti-German sentiment in some communities, it was not unknown for people with ‘German-sounding’ names to change them.) He sold his business in 1947 and served as village postmaster for many years after that. He was very enthusiastic about his community. Heinie was President of the local Royal Canadian Legion, Ration Board member, organizer of the local Red Cross, chairman of the Victory Loan Committee and numerous other community groups and organizations. Heinie and Dora retired to Saskatoon. He passed away June 8, 1960 and is buried in Hillcrest Memorial Gardens.

The third of eight children, he immigrated to Canada at the age of eighteen, first working in Ontario and then moving to Conquest for the harvest in 1913. He was working as a farmer in the Conquest area when he enlisted in Moose Jaw on February 2, 1916.

He sailed for England on August 15, 1916 and served with the 46th Battalion in France beginning May 23, 1917. Gordon also served as a rifle instructor and drill sergeant.

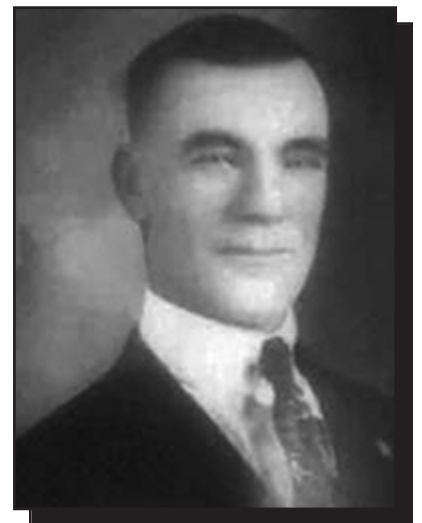

During his time at the front, he was hospitalized with pleurodynia, a form of myalgia that results in the sudden occurrence of severe chest pain and abdominal pain. He also suffered a gunshot wound to his head on November 9, 1918, two days before the end of World War I.

George Charles Joyes returned to Canada on June 28, 1919 and received his official discharge on July 6.

He returned to Conquest where he married Nella Geddes. They had six children: Jean, Margaret, Don, Norman, Robert and Gordon. The couple purchased land and lived on the farm until 1952 when they moved their house into Conquest.

Gordon was active in his community, teaching drill marching to local boys and ballroom dancing to several local girls. He was caretaker at the Fertile Valley Cemetery and a charter member of The Royal Canadian Legion.

In 1978, suffering from Pagets Disease, he moved to the Veterans Home in Saskatoon where he died on December 29, 1981. He is buried in the Fertile Valley Cemetery.

Walter Nelson “Nels” Julseth and Ethel May Wood

A Canadian Veteran and His War Bride

Nels was born in Loverna, Alberta, on December 3, 1919. He joined the RCAF in May 1941 and trained in Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan. He left for Liverpool, England, in December 1941. After postings and training courses in Syerston, Balderton, Leeds and Leeming, he declined an offer to be an instructor for Air Frame Mechanics and was posted to the 408 Squadron at RAF Topcliffe, close to Thirsk. At one of his postings, because of the blackouts during the war, he remembered staying in a 40' long stable with only two 60-watt light bulbs in it for the men to shave. He also remembered a thick Yorkshire accent telling him to “put wood inth ‘ole luv”, meaning to close the door. Life in England was very different for a prairie boy.

Ethel was born in Sunderland, England, on January 13, 1924. She joined the Women’s Auxiliary Air Force in the spring of 1942 after her father signed the paperwork. Originally from Newcastle, she was posted at RAF Topcliffe near Thirsk where she drove ambulances and Commanding Officers’ cars. It was at Topcliffe that she met Walter Nelson Julseth.

Their first “date” was Ethel driving Nels around the base in a heavy fog looking for a Lancaster bomber that had not returned from a mission. After their first meeting, Nels convinced her to accompany him to a dance, even after warning her he had two left feet and calling her “Red” because of her auburn hair. She later admitted that he did indeed have two left feet, but he must have done something right, as they were married in July 1944 at Barmby Parish Church, Barmby on the River.

Nels left England in late 1944, celebrating Christmas on the Queen Mary and arriving home on New Year’s Day 1945. Ethel followed in May 1945 on the Britannic with many other war brides. She almost returned immediately to England after coming all the way to Saskatchewan because Nels was late to meet her train. He had met up with some war buddies and got a little sidetracked. Fortunately, he convinced her to stay and they were married for over fifty years. They farmed in Plenty, Saskatchewan, and had six kids. They stayed in the Girvin/Craik, Saskatchewan area with Nels’ parents for a while before purchasing land in Plenty, Saskatchewan. Nels remained an active Legion Member after being discharged from the RCAF.

Ethel travelled back to England to visit family numerous times but was able to return to the church where they were married in the fall of 1999. Also on that trip, she was given an escorted tour around RAF Topcliffe, which was, and is still, an active base. They were more than happy to show her around once they found out she was stationed there during the war.

Ethel remained an active member of the War Bride Association throughout her life. In 2006, she was able to make the trip on The War Bride Train to Pier 21 in Halifax to celebrate the 60th Anniversary of the war brides coming to Canada.

Nels passed away on February 3, 1995 and Ethel passed away on January 9, 2015.

KNOWLES, Reginald Marshall

WWI

Lieutenant Reginald Marshall Knowles served with the 7th Battalion of Canadian Engineers. He was born on March 7, 1888, in West Flamborough in Wentworth County, Ontario. He was the son of Margaret Knowles (his service record does not give information about his father). Reginald was working as an accountant when he enlisted in Dundas, Ontario on January 31, 1916. Prior to enlistment, he spent considerable time in Saskatchewan as a member of the 105th Battalion Saskatoon Fusiliers. His name appears on the Conquest World War I Honour Roll. When he departed for overseas, he and his wife were living in Dundas; she later moved to Saskatoon. He left Canada aboard the Olympia on August 11, 1916 and arrived in England on August 30. By March 10, 1917, he was in France with the 129th Battalion. Reginald Marshall Knowles was killed instantly by a bomb dropped from an enemy aircraft on August 9, 1918. His death occurred during the Battle of Amiens in the village of Beaucourt-en-Santerre. He is buried in the Hourges Orchard Cemetery that was created in August 1918 as a burial place for 144 soldiers killed in action nearby. In that number are 121 Canadians, including Lieutenant Reginald Marshall Knowles.

LANSDELL, Norris "Slim"

WWII

Norris was born in Yellow Grass, Saskatchewan in 1919. He grew up, a typical prairie kid, shooting gophers and helping on the farm. He enlisted in the Canadian Army in Regina, Saskatchewan on October 2, 1941. His training was with the No. 17 Platoon, "C" Company C.A.(B.)T.C. No. 131 Camrose, Alberta in January 1942. His theatres of service were Canada, Britain, and the Central Mediterranean Area. Norris drove supply trucks and he suffered an eye injury by shrapnel. He never spoke much about his wartime memories to his family, but according to a Legion friend, his injury was sustained at the Battle of Ortona, Italy. He then spent recovery time in England before his honourable discharge, with the rank of Private, on November 19, 1945. His medals are: 1939-1945 Star, Italy Star, Canadian Volunteer Service Medal and War Medal 1939-1945. After the war, Norris married Winnifred Barnes of Clive, Alberta and they had three children. Norris and Winnie lived in Breton, Alberta for almost fifty years where he worked in the oil patch, sold Nature's Fertilizer and did the caretaking at the local high school, but Norris most enjoyed his career as the local auctioneer. He was a musical man and a jack-of-all-trades. He was a member of the Warburg, Alberta Legion from 1965 to 1978. Norris passed away on August 20, 2003 and is buried in the Breton Cemetery.

He served as Hartney's Town Constable and worked for Pioneer Electric in Regina and retired there. Edgar passed away on October 11, 2008 and is buried in the Windsor Cemetery in Teulon, Manitoba.

LENTON, Wilfrid

WWI

Wilfrid Lenton, Henry and Lucy's second child, was born on October 15, 1878, in Oundle, Northamptonshire, England. He attended Thrapston High School, attaining first place in his exams in 1896, his last year there. From 1896 to 1898, he was a pupil-teacher at the Rockingham Road Board School where he worked for his Teacher's Certificate, excelling in his studies. When war broke out in South Africa, he left his books, enlisted as a Trooper and sailed for the Table Bay in early 1899. After serving as a Trooper and acting non-commissioned officer under various generals, he received a commission as First Lieutenant and went to Johannesburg.

Wilfrid immigrated to Canada about six months after the war ended and entered the Ontario Veterinary College, graduating in 1905 with a gold medal for best general examination, first prizes in pathology and physiology, second in anatomy, third in disease and treatment and honours in three other subjects.

He practiced as a veterinarian in Belmont until July 1906 when he was offered the position of assistant veterinarian at the Agricultural Experiment Station at the University of Arkansas. In July 1907, he was made veterinarian to that institution and assistant in animal pathology. Later, he took charge of the Department of Veterinary Science. He was also a member of several boards. Known at the University as Professor Lenton, he drew up a bill covering all points of animal sanitation which the legislature of 1907-08 enacted into a law.

It was around that time that he started courting Gertrude Eva Besso, adopted daughter of Charles and Alena Drummond-Hay. No records of a formal adoption were found and Gertrude kept her birth surname until she married.

Wilfrid and Eva were married in the Parish Church in Belmont, Manitoba on October 9, 1907. They had five children: Wilfrid Drummond (August 23, 1908), Ethel Rebecca (April 24, 1910), Richard Roderick (September 23, 1911), Eric Kenneth (June 8, 1913), and Lucy Gertrude (February 6, 1915).

Wilfrid and Eva took up residence in Fayetteville, Arkansas where Wilfrid worked at the University of Arkansas for a wage of $1500 per annum. Their first two children, Wilfrid and Ethel, were born there. They returned to Canada after Ethel was born, settling in Junor, Saskatchewan where the other children, Richard, Eric, and Lucy, were born. The family lived in a log house valued at $300 in 1910 and $800 in 1921. A family story is that the roof leaked and Wilfrid, Ethel and a bag of flour were put under the table to keep them dry when it rained.

Wilfrid joined the Veterinary Corp of the Canadian Overseas Expeditionary Force in December 1914 and was sent to France in 1915. He received the commission of Captain and was awarded the Military Cross. Eva and the children went to Belmont and remained there until after the war. Veterinary units and over seven thousand horses sailed with Canada's First Contingent to England in October 1914. At its greatest strength, the Canadian Corps had more than 23, 500 horses (from Library and Archived Canada).

The family returned to Saskatchewan in 1919. He farmed and raised cattle. In 1927, Wilfrid purchased two acres of land in Medstead and built a two-storey house there. The front gate was a popular place for picture taking in the years that followed.

Wilfrid started working for the Rural Municipality of Medstead, a position he held for about fourteen years. He was well-known in the Medstead district, sat on various committees, was a devoted church member and a member of the Masonic Lodge. He passed away on September 6, 1943, at the age of 65.

Eva was also active in her community, especially the church, and was a devoted mother and grandmother. She passed away on June 22, 1948, at the age of 61.

MAINPRIZE, Graham William

WWII

A Veteran's Story

submitted by George Willard

The Harold, Herbert, Saskatchewan November 9, 2021

WILLIAM GRAHAM MAINPRIZE

Born 1888 in Ontario, loyally served as doctor in Midale, Saskatchewan for 54 years. Mainprize Regional Park and Golf Course in the Midale area on the Souris River is named in his honour.

GRAHAM WILLIAM MAINPRIZE

Son of William and Helen. Born May 13, 1922, Midale, Saskatchewan. Studied medicine at University of Saskatchewan and the University of Toronto. He came to Central Butte 1954 and was the area doctor until 1989. He passed away on August 16, 2004. The Ivermain Place Care Home is named in honour of Doctor Graham Mainprize and Doctor Arthur Iverson.

Before becoming a doctor - this is the amazing story of Graham Mainprize's experience in World War II. Graham's daughter Laura Mainprize writes:

I found notes that Dad had written up later in life. I couldn't find when he originally enlisted but he joined the RCAF on June 16, 1941, at 19 years old and trained as a navigator in Canada.

He was sent to England in June of 1942 and became part of Squadron 405 which was on coastal command until February, 1943.

In April, 1943 - 405 Squadron, became pathfinders for the British Bomber Command.

Dad and his crew members participated in several raids until August 2, 1943 when their plane was struck by lightning. Fortunately, the crew were able to land safely via parachute in Sweden where they were interned for six months. Dad landed in a potato patch near a house. Two men came out with a pitchfork but once they understood that he was a Canadian he was treated very well. He was also able to spend Christmas in Sweden with relatives on his mother's side.

After six months in the Swedish internment camp Dad was flown to England where he participated in training other navigators, then was based in Abbotsford, BC from April, 1944 to the end of the war.

The Crew and story of the HR281 info from google.

A Royal Canadian Air Force heavy bomber, Halifax HR871 served with No. 405 Pathfinder Squadron. Piloted by F/S John Philips, the Halifax was returning from a raid to Hamburg on Aug. 3, 1943, when it was struck by lightning, and lost two engines and vital flight controls. The crew diverted to neutral Sweden and bailed out of the aircraft. They survived and returned to the UK after being interned for several months.

Pilot Sergeant John Alywyn Phillips, Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve (RAFVR), and his crew – Sergeant H. C. McLean, flight engineer (RCAF); Flight Sergeant G.W. Mainprize, navigator (RCAF); Sergeant. V. A. Knight, bomb aimer (RAFVR); Sergeant R. A. Andrews, wireless operator (RAFVR); Sergeant W. H. King, mid-upper gunner (RCAF); and Sergeant L. D. Kohnke, tail gunner (RCAF) – were the last flight of ‘B’ for Baker. They were “wheels-up” from Gransden Lodge at 22:58 hours.

THE STORY OF HR871

During the outbound leg to Hamburg, they encountered a thunderstorm around 21,000 feet (6,400 metres). Ice began to accumulate on the Halifax’s control surfaces, making it sluggish and increasingly difficult to control. They would not have stood much of a chance if they had been forced to evade night fighters or flak, and Phillips quickly made the decision to dropping the TIs – target Indicators. Moments later, the forward section of the Halifax was struck by lightning. Both inner engines were knocked out, the radio was useless and several critical instruments stopped functioning. The brilliant flash temporarily blinded Phillips, and he lost control of the lumbering bomber momentarily. With a degree of control and his sight back, Phillips had to weigh the risks of trying to fly his crippled bomber back across the unforgiving North Sea back to England. He made the decision to turn the aircraft in a northerly direction, with the hope of reaching neutral Sweden.

Flying at just under 4,000 feet (1,219 metres) above the Baltic Sea, they made visual contact with a lighthouse and lights from a number of dwellings at Falsterbo. The aircraft passed Ringsjön and Vombsjön. Phillips changed course to a southwesterly heading, which would take the aircraft back out over the Baltic Sea. He trimmed the controls, and then gave the command to bail out. They were in close proximity to Flyinge, Sweden’s largest and best-known horse breeding station. One by one, the crew members fell into the dark sky. The crew survived and returned to the UK after being interned for six months.

WHERE IS HALIFAX HR871 NOW?

The bomber continued flying until it crashed into the Baltic Sea fifteen kilometres off the Swedish coast and sank into twenty metres of brackish (slightly salty) water. Since that time it has been inundated and covered by sand although three engines and small portions of the aircraft remain above the sand on the seafloor.

HALIFAX PROJECT Update - August 21, 2021

I am finally reporting to you after just stepping out of the Swedish whirlwind of the past 4 weeks when we prepared, launched, campaigned, and completed our historic first recovery operations to save all we can of combat bomber RCAF Halifax HR871, resting for 78 years in the Baltic Sea.

MAXWELL, Donald Henry

WWI

Donald Henry Maxwell indicated that his address was Conquest when he enlisted in Moose Jaw on April 4, 1916, at the age of 35. After a medical examination, he was declared fit for service.

He trained at Camp Hughes. Previous to that, he served four years with the Queen's Own Rifles in Toronto. At the time of enlistment, he was working as a farmer near Conquest.

He was born in Lakeport, Ontario on September 11, 1880. He came to Conquest in 1910. His next of kin was his mother Lavinia (Dougherty) Maxwell of Lakeport.

He embarked from Halifax aboard the SS Justica on June 25, 1917. Serving with the 28th Battalion, he trained as a machine gunner in England before being deployed to France on February 28, 1918 with the 19th Battalion, known as the Argylls. The 19th had earned an enviable reputation throughout the course of the war. For three months, beginning near the end of March 1918, the battalion formed a holding line against German raids while carrying out aggressive excursions in the Neuville Vitasse sector.

Because Donald had suffered from poor vision (hypermetropia) since his childhood, he was assigned to the Army Medical Centre during this period. His service record indicates that he returned to Canada in May 1919 and was discharged at the age of 38 years, 10 months in Regina on June 2, 1919. On his discharge papers his proposed residence was Conquest.

He married Rebecca Pritchard and they had a daughter Elizabeth. Donald Henry Maxwell died on November 19, 1962 in Calgary and is buried in the Burnsland Cemetery.

MAXWELL, Gordon Sinclair

WWII

Gordon was born in Drinkwater, Saskatchewan, in 1923. He served with the Royal Winnipeg Rifles between 1943 and 1945. He served as a Sergeant in England, France, Belgium, Holland, and Germany. He was in the Juno Beach landing on June 6, 1944, and the Battles at Carpiquet. He was the only one from his Platoon who landed on D-Day to reach the end of the war without being injured or killed.

He returned to the battlefields on the 40th, 45th and 50th Anniversaries.

He was a member of The Royal Canadian Legion Branch 2 for sixty years.

Gordon passed away in 2007.

His father Richard Minchin died in 1903. He came west in 1906 as a homesteader, working with oxen, then horses. James was working as a farmer in the Conquest area when he enlisted in Moose Jaw on July 12, 1915, at the age of 36. He crossed the Atlantic to England, departing on August 15, 1916. As a member of the 50th Battalion, he saw action in France for a period of 25 months beginning December 14, 1916. He suffered a gunshot wound to his right leg and shoulder on May 10, 1917 at Vimy Ridge and was gassed on June 23, 1917. The result was that he was hospitalized twice. He also suffered from myalgia which, according to his service record, was "much aggravated" by his service in France. Private Minchin arrived back in Canada aboard the Empress of Britain on February 25, 1919. He is identified in the 1921 Census as single, age 42, working as a self-employed carpenter and living in the household of his brother Joseph and his wife and two children.

MOORE, Richard

WWI

Richard Moore was born in Woodville, Ontario on April 19, 1891. He listed his occupation as machinist when he enlisted in Moose Jaw on May 24, 1916, at the age of 25. At the time, he was working in Conquest. He identified his next of kin as his mother Annie Smith of Udney, Ontario.

A private with the 128th Battalion, he sailed from Halifax on August 15, 1916. Richard saw significant action in France, beginning December 13, 1916. Fighting with the 50th Battalion on April 11, 1917, Richard Moore was part of the offensive that took the famous “Pimple” and drove the remaining German troops behind the Oppy-Mericourt Line.

Another Canadian Private, William Pecover wrote of that offensive: “Moving forward in the full light of that clouded April morning, we learned full well the nature of the great modern battlefield. The wounded, friend and foe alike, lay everywhere about in the cold, wet mud, silent and helpless in their agony or crying out for the stretcher bearers who fanned out behind the attacking waves.”

Richard Moore was reported missing in action on April 16, 1917, at Vimy Ridge. The next day he was found with severe entrance and exit wounds to the humerus bone in his right arm. After hospitalization at various places in England (Bramshott, Epsom, Sheffield and Liverpool), Richard Moore was declared medically unfit on April 11, 1919 and returned to Canada. Even after two years of hospitalization and treatment, he was unable to flex the fingers on his right hand. He returned to Canada where he was an outpatient at Whitby Hospital being treated for a chronic middle ear infection. Richard Moore was discharged at the age of 28 on April 9, 1919. His discharge papers indicated his intention to live in Uptergrove, Ontario. He died on November 19, 1958.

MORTON, David Samuel

WWI

David Samuel Morton was born on May 29, 1881, in Springbrook, Ontario to Archibald and Margaret Morton. His parents are buried in the Outlook Cemetery. (There are conflicting birth dates for David: his service record indicates 1881, while his tombstone indicates 1879.)

The parents were living in the Bratton area at the time David enlisted on February 18, 1916, in Outlook at the age of 34. He was a barber at the time. He sailed overseas aboard the SS Empress of Britain, departing on May 20, 1916. Altogether, he served 15 months with the 78th Battalion in France before being hospitalized for mustard gas poisoning on August 11, 1917 at Passchendaele. After his discharge from the hospital, he returned to the front line in France where he suffered gunshot wounds to his left thigh and both hands. The Army returned him to Canada on March 9, 1918. He received his discharge papers in Regina on April 16, 1918. His service record indicated that his “general condition is not very good.”

David returned home to resume his work as a barber. He married Harriet Reid of Broderick. The couple moved to Glenside where David was the Postmaster until his death on May 10, 1949. He is buried in Glenside Cemetery.

MOSURE, George Milton

WWII

George was born in Star City, Saskatchewan on January 5, 1919. He moved to the White Fox, SK area in 1919 and enlisted in the Army in 1942, serving in Holland, Italy, France and Germany, and was discharged on March 15, 1946. He married Selma Weber in 1939, and after the war they made a home in Pinehurst, SK and in 1977 they moved to Keg River, Alberta. George received the Italy Star, the France and Germany Star, and the 1939-1945 Star. George passed away on October 15, 2001.

MULLIN, Charles Henry

WWI

For Charles Henry Mullin, a farmer from the Conquest area, wartime was an especially unpleasant experience. He was held as a prisoner of war for 1,269 days. Born in Nippissing, Ontario on February 25, 1895, to Michael and Dora Greenwood (Sutcliffe) Mullin, he enlisted at Valcartier at the age of nineteen on September 23, 1914.

Charles sailed on the SS Olympia from Halifax to England. He was sent to France in February of 1915. Fighting with the Second Army Corps, he was engaged in the Second Battle of Ypres when, for the first time in modern warfare, the enemy used poisonous chlorine gas. During the course of the battle, approximately 1,400 Canadian soldiers were taken prisoner in a single day. Charles Henry Mullin, after four months service at the front lines, was one of them. He was reported missing on May 10 and his capture was confirmed a day later.

Carrying a painful piece of shrapnel in his right knee, he was shuttled to a number of prisoner of war camps, including Padenborn, Munster and Minden—none of which was known for humane treatment of captives.

On October 30, 1918, he was finally repatriated, and a Dutch doctor removed the shrapnel. Recovery in the Military Hospital at Ripon was followed by a return journey back to Canada and official discharge from the Army on April 7, 1919. Charles Henry Mullin was barely 24 years of age. His discharge papers indicated his intention to return to Outlook.

He married Elizabeth Jane Adams on December 30, 1919. They had two sons, Michael Douglas and Gerald T., and a daughter, Peggy. The couple moved to Abbotsford, British Columbia in 1934 where Charles farmed and worked for many years as a commercial truck driver. He was a member of the Royal Canadian Legion.

He died suddenly at home on September 21, 1971. He is buried at the Hazelwood Cemetery in Abbotsford, BC.

Later, they became one of the first farms in Canada to specialize in Leaf Cutter Bees. MURK, Karl Walter

WWII

Karl was born on a farm near Thompkins, Saskatchewan on February 5, 1914. He joined the army in Grenfell, Saskatchewan on November 1, 1941. He was a Lance Bombardier with the 65th Anti-Tank Battery Royal Canadian Artillery. Throughout his time in the military, he was a driver trainer and also a mechanic doing maintenance on all military vehicles (trucks, tanks, motorcycles).

Karl's military service is broken down into four phases. Phase One consisted of mobilization and training in Canada. Phase Two took place in England where the Battery considerably intensified training. Phase Three began in July 1944 when the Battery landed in Normandy and ended in May 1945 with the capitulation of the enemy in Europe. Following this came Phase Four, the occupation of Germany and the long months of waiting in Holland for a new D-Day Demobilization Day.

During Phase Three, the Battery built for itself an enviable reputation for reliability, versatility, and its fighting qualities. Esprit de corps was not an empty phrase to these men, for pride in their unit was high and morale never low. This was so, in spite of the fact that they had learned early in the battle that their normal role of destroying tanks was but one of many in which they were destined to be used.

West of the Rhine, Crusader Towers of the Battery earned high praise after acting as armoured infantry carriers. On the River Maas, their deadly 17-pounders substituted for field artillery. East and West of the Rhine, sorely needed aid was given to the engineers in the construction of the roads, often under enemy shell fire. The boys tried their hand at building bridges. West of the Rhine, Crusader Towers were put to use towing 25-pounders out of the gun positions, and transporting 25-pounder ammunition through heavy mud. At Lith, carrier platoons were formed with carriers and Crusaders as a mobile reserve and at Vught in December 1944 as a mobile anti-airborne force. The men were initiated into the infantry role on the River Mass and again reverted to the role of footslogger in the final days of the war, acting as left flank protection in Germany up to Bad Zwischenahn.

The fire power of the Battery was terrific. The three troops employed a total of twelve 17-pounders anti-tank guns, one of the finest weapons of its type developed by any of the nations. In addition to these, the Battery carried and made good use of 23 Brens, 4 PIAT's, 7 two-inch motors, a plentiful supply of grenades and a considerable number of small arms carried by all ranks including Sten, Rifles and pistols. The high allotment of weapons was augmented still further from time to time through the ingenuity of the men themselves.

Except during certain infantry roles, the men never suffered for the lack of transport. The 17-pounders were originally towed by Field Artillery Tractors, later by modified crusader tanks, and finally by American M-9 or M-14 Halftracks. In addition, the Battery employed nine 60 ct's, nine 15 ctw's, 15 cwt's, six 5 cwt's (jeeps) Four Norton Motorcycles and a halftrack used by the Battery Commander.

Communications within the Battery was maintained mainly by five No. 22 wireless sets and sixteen No. 38 wireless sets.

Battery strength was approximately 180 all ranks.

Karl was a member of the E Troop.

A story told to us by Karl is one time when the troop was being bombed, Karl dove under a tank. A medic came along and thought his feet had been blown off, as he was double jointed and his feet were splayed out sideways.

NELLIGAN, Allan Neil

WWII

By Kyla Brett

‘Dear Mom, Dad, and girls...’

Allan N. Nelligan was born on October 30, 1919, to James and Annie Nelligan. In 1940, Allan, along with his parents and younger brother and sisters moved to Lashburn, Saskatchewan from Mayerthorpe, Alberta. The family consisted of: Allan, Gerald (who passed in his early teens), his sisters, Sheila, Bernice, Patricia, Edna, Theresa, and their parents. Allan’s father, James, worked for the CN railroad most of his life and his mother was a nurse and cared for Allan and his five siblings. The Nelligans brought their children up on religious views and loved them as any parents would. They were an average family living during the hardships the last decades had served the country. In 1939, war ensued across the world, with young and able men enlisting coast to coast to assist in the effort. Allan, at the time, was twenty years old, full of potential and the ability to thrive in life. He was educated, had a loving family, and was able to fight for Canada. It was not until late 1943 that Allan enlisted and set out for England to fight in World War II.

‘Just a few lines to let you know that all is well, and I hope you are the same... I haven’t seen much of the country yet, but certainly do like what I have seen... The blackout is a bit hard to get used to, and believe me, it sure gets dark around here.’

In October 1943, Allan was swept into the midst of the army. After basic flight schooling in Canada, he took a ship across the Atlantic Ocean. The voyage lasted an estimated one to two weeks and arrived in England in the last few days of October 1943. Allan wrote a letter to his parents on November 1, 1943, detailing his trip, saying how fascinating the new surroundings were, and letting everyone back home know he was safe and well. The letter was labeled #3 P.R.C. which is assumed to be in Uxbridge, UK, a base for the RCAF throughout the war. Allan served with the Royal Canadian Air Force for the entirety of his time overseas. When he first arrived in England, his tasks involved flight school, ground school, flare path duty, and working the AP’s. Allan worked for weeks on flight training and duties but once had a short intermission due to a case of the mumps in February 1944. In March, he continued his training and would continuously be changing stations to receive new areas of the demanded course. In April, he completed two weeks of flight to receive his Beam Approach Training (BAT), then returned to his A.F.U. (Advanced Flying Unit) to complete his training. In May 1944, Allan began night flying, stating in a letter how he and his crew would sleep until one or two o’clock, enjoy the sunshine in the afternoon and early evening, then get back to work as night fell upon them. “It’s really grand flying at night over here, almost impossible to get lost... They have a marvelous organization in this country, Flying Control, that helps the aircrews in every way possible.” Allan continued to serve over the next months of 1944, serving in Squadron 419 and moving his way up to become Flight Lieutenant Allan Neil Nelligan and often flying a Lancaster bomber (Avro Lancaster). Letters flooded back and forth between Allan and his family back home and life went on until the last letter arrived, dated October 21, 1944, from Allan to his eldest sister Sheila.

‘Well Sheila, I must close now and go up and see what’s doing at the flight, so will close now, hoping you will write again soon. Love to all,’

On October 27, Allan and a flight sergeant from his crew were flying when their plane was shot down in Cologne, Germany. On October 28, the pair were declared missing in action, and a cable was sent to Canada advising Allan’s parents of their fate. Their son, Flying Officer Allan Neil Nelligan, J/26969, was deemed missing action at the age of 24. Following his death, in 1947, Lieutenant A. N. Nelligan was posthumously awarded the Operational Wings of the Royal Canadian Air Force in recognition of gallant service in action against the enemy. As well as this, due to his services, a lake in Northern Saskatchewan was named Nelligan Lake in honour of Allan. Although his body was never recovered, Allan was given a grave in the Reichswald Forrest War Cemetery, grave reference I.F.5. Though Allan lost his life in service of his country, his memory lives on through remembrance and gratitude for all he and his fellow crew members did to protect Canada and through the life of his daughter, Mary, who was born after his death.

‘Loads of love to all. Your Loving son, Allan.’

NEWTON, John Lewis “Jack”

WWI

4th Canadian Mounted Regiment #109529 B Squadron 2nd Brigade Signal Corp
Canadian Army Corps, B.E.F. (British Expeditionary Force), France

John “Jack” Lewis Newton was born in England in 1885, arriving in Canada by ship in 1904. He purchased a homestead in 1905 on NE 16-21-5W3 which is six miles west of Central Butte (five miles south of Lawson). When World War I broke out, he went back to England and enlisted with the English Army. His first duty there was to deliver messages to the front line on a motorcycle. He transferred to the 4th Canadian Mounted Rifles. John told his children that even though he enlisted with a mounted regiment, they were never given horses.

When the war was over, he returned and married Jane McEwen (Jean) on December 27, 1918 and together they raised eight children (four boys, four girls). In 1946, he leased his land to his sons and retired on Vancouver Island. John and Jean returned to Central Butte in 1970 where he died in 1972. Four of John’s children served in World War II and luckily, they all came home safe.

By John’s youngest son, W.A. (Bill) Newton.

Below is a letter Jack wrote to his brother Cam while servicing in the trenches in World War I.

France
Dec. 7th, 1915
Dear Cam

Thanks for your letter of Nov 15th which reached me yesterday. Yes, we are getting now, what we have been waiting for, for almost a year, we have been into it on three different occasions. Trench fighting is no picnic at this time of the year, one is plastered with mud from head to foot all the time. The mud is more than knee deep in lots of places. We just got the dugouts & parapets* (picture) nicely fixed up when Fritz* gets wild and knocks them all down again. I would certainly like to have a look at the German trenches, our artillery put over about ten times as many shells as they do, & I think their trenches must be a devil of a mess. Quite a few of our fellows have been knocked out already. We don’t see much of the Germans but the trenches are so close together we can hear them talking quite plainly, some places they are only 40 yds. Rats are just about as plentiful as mosquitos in Saskatchewan, they crawl into bed with one in the dugouts and sit up on the parapet right beside you & just wink when a rifle is fired. We are obliged to store our rations in tin boxes, the first time I went in ¾ of a loaf of bread mysteriously disappeared. We are action about half the time, the balance of the time we stay in a cow barn a few miles from firing line. The most ticklish part of this job is the listening post on nobodies land between the trenches, one has to remain perfectly silent & give the signal if necessary of any movement Fritz may be making & all of a sudden one finds himself staring right into the eyes of a big squareheaded German crawling through the grass on the same duty. The listening post carries a rifle & ammunition but has orders not to fire unless absolutely necessary, so we don’t stop to argue the point, by the way there is generally an extra ration of rum on this post, which helps considerably. One is just given enough to cultivate the fighting mood but some fellows say it makes them feel like going over to Fritz & shaking hands.

I think Lance is at Marseille now, he was about thirty miles from here until just lately. He is in a far better branch of the service than this, we are supposed to be a mounted regiment but are doing just the same work as infantry. We have broken in two lots of horses & had them taken away from us again. There is only one squadron of mounted Canadians who have been allowed to keep their mounts out here.

My address is Trooper J L Newton #109529 B Squadron 4th CMR 2nd Brigade Canadian Mounted Regiment, Canadian Army Corps, B.E.F. (British Expeditionary Force), France.

NICKLIN, John J.

WWI

John was born in McLean, North Dakota on August 25, 1898. He enlisted in May 1916 with the Royal Canadian Air Force, 184 Canadian Infantry and served in England and Germany. He was discharged in June 1919 and married Kristjana Goodman and they lived in Mozart, Saskatchewan. John is now deceased.

NISBET, Earl Grant

WWII

Earl Grant Nisbet, son of Charles and Hazelina (Cavanaugh), was born in Ardath on May 27, 1920, the fourth of five siblings. His brothers Gordon and George David both saw service in World War II. He attended Ardath School until he was taken out to assist his father with work. He learned the value of hard work very early in his life.

He was working as a labourer when he enlisted with the Regina Rifle Regiment, "B" Company in North Battleford. His military service lasted from June 12, 1940 until September 25, 1945. During that time, he participated in the complex and dangerous D-Day invasion on the beaches of Normandy on June 6, 1944. His company, the 7th Brigade, landed on Green Nan Beach between Courseulles and Saint-Aubin-sur-Mer. After a fierce fight, the brigade pushed east into Holland and Belgium. Private Nisbet was wounded on August 19, 1944 during the battle to close the Falaise Gap.

After his discharge, Earl married Cyprienne Deschamps in 1947; the couple had five children: Barbara, Brenda, Valerie, Jeffrey and Keith. Immediately following the war, Earl took advantage of the Veterans Rehabilitation Plan and earned Bachelor of Civil Engineering from the University of Saskatchewan in 1950. He did important work for the PFRA (Prairie Farm Rehabilitation Act) during the construction of the Gardiner Dam.

Between 1964 and 1976, he worked for the St. Lawrence Seaway at Niagara and Cornwall. In the late 1970s he formed his own company, E. G. Nisbet and Associates. He did contract work, sometimes overseas. He worked on one of the palaces of the King of Saudi Arabia.

In retirement, Earl volunteered with the Salvation Army. His wife died in 2013, after 66 years of marriage. Earl Grant Nisbet died in St. Catharines, Ontario on April 7, 2014.

NISBET, George David

WWII

George David Nisbet, born on November 14, 1916, was the second oldest son of Charles and Hazelina Nisbet of Conquest. He attended school in Ardath where he achieved a grade 11 standing. He enjoyed playing baseball and hockey. He did farm work for his father, followed by trucking in Ruddell, Saskatchewan, and working for Negue Mines in Yellowknife. George enlisted in Saskatoon on August 5, 1941. He served with RAF Squadron 10, based near Melbourne, Yorkshire. Tragically, during his first mission on Sunday, May 23, 1943, Air Gunner Nisbet's Halifax II bomber was shot down over the Netherlands during a night flight. The plane and seven-man crew were reported missing on May 24. German military personnel recovered George Nisbet's body on June 7 in IJsselmeer, a shallow lake in northwest Holland. All seven crew members died in the crash. George was 27 years old. A memorial service was held in Conquest United Church where a joint Ardath-Conquest choir led the singing. Sergeant George David Nisbet's body was first buried near Wolf, Germany, but was later laid to rest at the Wonseradeel Makkum Protestant War Cemetery in Rheinberg, Germany. The inscription on his tombstone reads: "He died for King and Country: gone but not forgotten."

NISBET, Gordon

WWII

Gordon Nisbet was born in Ardath on November 26, 1921, to Charles and Hazelina Nisbet, one of five siblings who grew up in hard times. He attended school in Ardath until he was taken out by his father to assist with work. Gordon joined the Canadian Army in 1941 and participated in dangerous missions in Sicily, Italy and France. On September 22, 1945, he was mentioned in one of the King's Dispatches in recognition of "gallant and distinguished services." (The "Dispatches" identify a member of the armed forces whose name appears in an official report written by a superior officer and sent to the high command, in which their gallant or meritorious action in the face of the enemy is described.) He returned to Canada in 1945 and graduated from a mechanics course at Technical School in Saskatoon. During his career, he worked for General Motors as a mechanic in Saskatoon, Humboldt and Regina. He married a nurse, Eleanor Beatrice McAuley in 1941, before going overseas. They had two children: Dennis and Karen. Ending his career as a mechanic, Gordon bought a farm south of White Fox where he especially enjoyed his horses. He died at home on January 27, 2016 and is buried in the White Fox Cemetery.

NISBET, Robert Albert

WWII

Robert Albert Nisbet was born near Ardath on April 11, 1922. His parents were Robert and Maggie Odella Nisbet. He attended school in Ardath until grade ten. Like many prairie boys he enjoyed playing hockey and baseball. His father had passed away and Robert was farming on his own when he enlisted in the RCAF in Saskatoon on February 1, 1943. He served with Squadron 419 of the RAF. An examiner when Robert enlisted described him as "a muscular, alert, aggressive, confident lad" who would become an excellent airman. He departed from Halifax on November 27, 1943 and joined Squadron 419 which flew Wellington, Halifax and Canadian-built Lancaster aircraft on strategic and tactical bombing operations. On a bombing mission to Weisbaden on February 3, 1945, Robert Albert Nisbet's Lancaster bomber was hit by enemy flak and crashed. Of the seven-man crew, only tail gunner Bill McTagert survived. Robert is buried at Rheinberg War Cemetery near Duisberg, Germany.

NOBLE, Andrew

WWI

Andrew was born in New Pitsligo, Scotland on March 29, 1886. He was a 29-year-old farmer from Conquest when he enlisted in Saskatoon on July 24, 1915.

He was granted 'harvest leave' from August to September after he signed up with the 65th Battalion. He identified his next of kin as his mother Mary Noble of Pitsligo; however, his pay was sent to Florence Laddell in Saskatoon.

Andrew sailed for England on January 18, 1916 aboard the SS Empress of Britain. In France, he was hospitalized in Calais for a gunshot wound to his right leg in April 1917 at Vimy Ridge. The London Gazette reported that he was awarded the Military Medal on July 9, 1917 for "conspicuous gallantry" in the field. He was a 'company runner,' who braved enemy shell and machine gun fire to deliver important messages to his commander. It is reported that after he was wounded, he continued for twelve hours before reporting his own injury. The battle was fierce, with all but one officer and twelve men being casualties in trench warfare near Souchez. After being discharged from hospital on May 28, he rejoined his unit.

Andrew Noble was killed in action at Méharicourt on August 9, 1918 during the Battle of Amiens which saw British, Australian and Canadian troops advance 20 kilometres to retake land from the German army and seize the initiative in the final weeks of World War I.

He is buried at the small Hillside Cemetery southeast of Amiens alongside 97 of his countrymen.

NORDSTROM, Clarence Arthur "Cully"

WWII

Cully was born in Canwood, Saskatchewan, on June 9, 1918. He was one of the first to sign up with the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps, Ammunition Park attached to the 3rd Infantry Brigade, Seventh Corps, serving in Aldershot, England, in 1940.

By 1941, he had seen a fair amount of the country driving a convoy truck. The makeshift accommodation combined with cold and wet weather resulted in Cully contracting a serious sinus condition. Surgery resulted in complications and infection, and ultimately he was discharged and in rehabilitation. He passed away in 1993.

NUTT, George Jocelyn

WWI

George was born in Kingston, Jamaica, in 1896. He joined the 196th Western Universities Battalion on March 20, 1916, and served in Canada, England and France. He was discharged sometime in 1919, and received the General Service Medal and the Allied Medal. It is interesting to note that his birthplace is Jamaica and that his occupation is bank manager. So many occupations are listed as farmer or labourer. It is unclear how long he stayed in the community of Earl Grey.

NYE (HEWETT), Elizabeth Isabel

WWI

Born in England in November 1869, Elizabeth Hewett emigrated to Canada in June 1909. The passenger list of the ship indicated that she was “coming to Canada to marry a farmer,” William Nye, who was born in Brighton, England on November 14, 1861. She and her husband lived on a homestead northwest of Conquest. Tragedy was soon to follow.

On November 28, 1910, their infant daughter died. Thirty-four days later, on January 1, 1911, William passed away. Previously, Elizabeth had earned a Royal College of Nursing Certificate at London’s Metropolitan Hospital. After marrying William Nye of Conquest, she became a Canadian citizen in 1909.

Like so many newly arrived immigrants from the British Isles, she answered the call when World War I began. Elizabeth returned to England where, on July 26, 1915, she began work as a matron with the Red Cross at Gifford House Auxiliary Hospital, where her pay was £1.1 per week. The hospital was located in an enormous country home owned by John Douglas Charrington of the wealthy brewery family. When it first opened on June 21, 1915 it had 80 beds, a number that rose to 230 as the war progressed. The ball room was converted to a ward, and the concert room became a day room for the many discharged servicemen who needed continuing care.

A tragic combination of trench warfare, bombs and chemical weapons meant that the wounded often needed a long time to recover. In these hospital-homes, men who had been blinded by mustard gas or who had lost limbs would take the first steps towards re-entering the civilian world. Under the care of Red Cross Nurses, men with ‘shell shock’ were made to feel safe among comrades suffering the same trauma. Elizabeth worked at other hospitals in France, Belgium and Greece. She was awarded a Victory Medal.

After the war, Elizabeth returned to her home in Conquest. The 1921 Census identifies her as a 50-year-old widow and a self-employed private nurse. At that time, she was living in Conquest, operating a nursing home in her six-room house on Kirkton Street. In July 1933, along with 2,000 other nurses, she attended the International Congress of Nurses co-hosted in Paris and Brussels where she met King Albert I and Queen Elizabeth. She had many experiences in her lifetime. For example, she was present on the welcoming platform when King George VI and Queen Elizabeth visited Saskatoon in 1939.

Moving to Saskatoon in 1952, Elizabeth Isabel Nye spent the final years of her life in a nursing home where she died at the age of 86 on Tuesday, January 18, 1956. The funeral was held at McKague Funeral Chapel in Saskatoon. She is buried in the Fertile Valley Cemetery near Conquest.

OBEE, Henry Alfred “Harry”

WWI

Henry “Harry” Alfred Obee (also known in some documents as William Henry Obee; he had two service numbers) was born in London, England on June 8, 1890 (different documents list the year of birth as 1889 or 1891). His parents were William and Harriett Obee.

He listed his occupation as surveyor and his address as Conquest when he enlisted as a single man in Moose Jaw on June 8, 1916. His attestation papers identify Joseph Lorimer, a friend from Conquest as next of kin. Mr. Lorimer was well known in Conquest for the help he provided to newcomers.

Henry Obee was clearly determined to serve Canada in the army. He was declared fit for service at the date of his enlistment, despite the fact that his vision was very poor. Less than a year later, he received a discharge because of his vision problem. His service record states the severity of the problem: “the patient cannot distinguish objects at all with his left eye at either close range or at a distance... Sight in the right eye is also poor, especially at a distance.” That should have ended his military career. However, using the name William Henry Obee, he re-enlisted in Merritt, BC on January 17, 1918 in the 2nd Battalion BC Regiment at the age of 27. Astonishingly, he was sent overseas where he served from September 4, 1918 until April 6, 1919 with the 21st Battalion in France. The 21st Battalion played key roles in the war, including at Vimy Ridge. When Harry Obee joined the battalion in September 1918, it was part of the famous Hundred Day Offensive that ultimately led to the end of World War I.

After his discharge in Toronto on May 29, 1919, Private Obee married Mona Clementine King. They had three sons before their divorce: Dallas James, Clarence and Albert Henry.

He settled in Williams Lake, BC following the war where he worked as a carpenter and finished his career as a foreman.

He died on May 30, 1959, in New Westminster, BC, at the age of 68.

ODELL, Nelson Jr.

WWII

Nelson was born in Kincaid, Saskatchewan on April 21, 1918. His family homesteaded near Caroline, Alberta. He enlisted in the Calgary Highlanders in March 1940 with his father and brother and was sent overseas in the fall of 1943. He was discharged in 1946 but joined the Royal Canadian Air Force in 1948. Nelson passed away on March 5, 1965.

PROCTOR, Charles Henry

WWI

Charles Henry Proctor was born on April 14, 1881, in Ebrington, Campden, Gloucestershire, the second of six children. His parents were Thomas and Annie Proctor.

Immigration records show that he arrived in Canada on April 20, 1907, at the age of 26. Although he listed his occupation as bricklayer, he made his way west to Conquest where he joined his brother Robert on a farm. He was single and a farmer at the time.

He enlisted in the Canadian Expeditionary Force in Saskatoon on April 4, 1916, at the age of 34, attached to the 65th Battalion. He also served with 46th and 3rd battalions as well as the 4th Canadian Labrador Battalion.

Charles sailed from Halifax on June 18, 1916 aboard the Empress of Britain. He began service in France on March 14, 1917. However, because he suffered from a foot deformity (hallux valgus) because of ill-fitting boots as a child, he was unable to march with the pack and keep up. Therefore, the Medical Board assigned most of his service to garrison duty in England and permanent base duty in France with the Canadian Infantry Works Corps. Charles Henry served a total of three years and 47 days.

Charles received his discharge in England on May 10, 1919. At that time, he indicated that he intended to remain in England. However, he returned to Canada on March 5, 1920 at the port of Montreal. Age 39 and single, he indicated his intention to return to Conquest and join his brother Robert. In 1921, he paid a visit to his parents in England and returned to Canada in June 1922. Charles Henry Proctor died on August 24, 1961.

PROCTOR, Rowland John

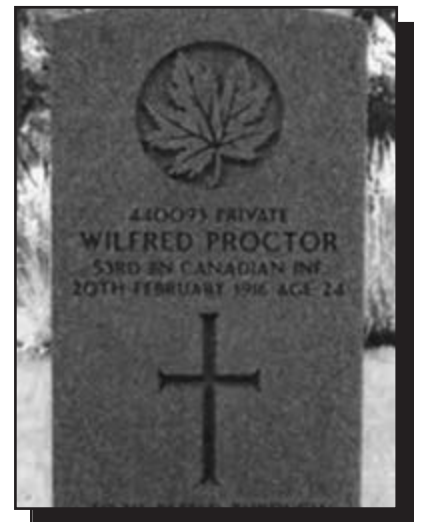

WWI

Rowland was born in Campden, England on April 10, 1892. His parents were Thomas and Annie Proctor. He listed his address as Conquest when he enlisted with the 65th Battalion in Saskatoon on December 29, 1915 at the age of 23. He was unmarried and stated that his occupation was a farmer. After basic training, he sailed from Halifax on June 18, 1916 aboard the Empress of Britain. He served in France with the 46th Battalion for 14 months, 10 of which were on the front lines. He was injured on August 23, 1916, and like countless of his front-line comrades he experienced trench fever which produced cold sweats and shortness of breath. In January 1917, a severe case of bronchitis and its aftermath prevented him from climbing stairs or continuous walking. He was assigned to base duty. Rowland John Proctor was returned to Canada where he received his discharge on March 30, 1918. Soon after, he returned to England after his discharge. The 1939 England and Wales Register shows he married Olive Keeley and they lived in Stratford-on-Avon where he was a tractor driver. They had a daughter Manie, born on June 15, 1931.

PROCTOR, Wilfred

WWI

Wilfred arrived in Canada (Quebec City) on June 24, 1913. His destination was Saskatoon where he intended to find work. Born to John and Ellen Proctor of Edbington, Campden, Gloucestershire on June 23, 1891, was the fourth child of nine. It is not known what work he did, but his immigration papers listed his occupation as plasterer, the same as his father. It is known that he lived in Saskatoon beginning in April 1913. He enlisted in Saskatoon on March 26, 1915 with the 53rd Battalion. His short military service was limited to Canada because of illness. He was admitted to hospital in Winnipeg with bronchitis. When his condition worsened with the onset of measles, he was transferred to the King George Isolation Hospital which opened in 1914 for the care and treatment of patients with communicable diseases. At the age of 24, Wilfred died on February 20, 1916, less than a year after he enlisted. A Memorial Cross was awarded to his mother. He is buried in Brookside Cemetery Field of Honour in Winnipeg.

RAMSAY, John Pinkney

WWI

John was born in Sunderland Bridge, County Durham, England on June 30, 1890, to Thomas and Janet Ramsay. He had one brother, one sister, two half-sisters and one half-brother. They came to Canada in 1909 and farmed in Silton, Saskatchewan. He enlisted in the Army in Regina on January 1, 1915 in "B" Company 46th Battalion Canadian Expeditionary Force. He transferred to 3rd Battalion PPLI. Corporal John Pinkney Ramsay, at the age of 26, was killed in action in the trenches east of Courcellette on September 24, 1916. His body was never recovered. SCOTT, William John

WWII

Bill was born in Melfort, Saskatchewan on November 18, 1922. He was a member of the Royal Winnipeg Rifles (Little Black Devils) part of the June 6, 1944 at Juno Beach. He was one of the 11 men out of 33 that made the beach. Most of the 11 were wounded.

Bill had told his son, Russell W. E. Scott, the following: Bill was part of the first wave that went into France (Juno Beach). If it had not been for a Canadian indigenous soldier, he would have drowned.

Bill was wounded three times: one bullet went through a lung, another went through his leg front to back without breaking a bone and left a wound deep enough you could put a finger in, and the third went into his hip and stayed there until he was home from the war.

After the war, and somewhat recovered, Bill was taking the horse and caboose into town when the horse reared ahead and he bumped his hip on the caboose, opening the wound so much that he was able to remove the bullet. The bullet was placed on a chain and was proudly worn to the November 11 services. The family still has the bullet and bloody clothes that Bill came home in.

He was transported home on the Queen Mary. Years later, Bill and his wife Isabell and son Russell had Christmas Diner on the Queen Mary and toured the ship. His father was John Alexander Scott in the Willowdale/Pathlow District. Bill passed away on May 16, 1995.

He received the 1939-1945 Star, France and Germany Star, Defence Medal, Canadian Volunteer Service Medal and Clasp, and War Medal 1939-1945.

Ernest was born in Morse, Saskatchewan on August 17, 1921. He enlisted into the South Saskatchewan Regiment in January 1943 and trained in Canada until July 1943 when he was shipped to the United Kingdom. In August 1943, he was transferred to the Lake Superior Regiment (motor). He trained in the United Kingdom until July 26, 1944 at which time he landed in Normandy. Almost immediately, the L.S.R. (m) was involved in battle starting with Falaise and working their way up to Normandy through Belgium and to the Netherlands. The regiment earned a reputation for being "hard fighting and courageous". Their motto was Inter Pericula Intrepidi, fearless in the face of danger. They were usually at the front of the lines and other regiments were glad when the L.S.R. (m) was attached to their unit. Ernest was injured in the Netherlands. At the end of the war, in May, he was transferred back to the South Saskatchewan Regiment and ended up doing peacekeeping duty in Germany until he was shipped back to Canada in late 1945. He was delisted in January 1946 after three years in the Canadian Army. Ernest passed away on October 7, 1976.

WARLOW, Douglas Edgar

WWI

Douglas was born in Carman, Manitoba on May 25, 1896. His parents were Arthur and Olivie Ann (Bush) Warlow. He was living in Ardath at the time of his enlistment in Saskatoon on July 5, 1917 with the 1st Depot Saskatchewan Regiment. He was 21 years old and single at the time but intended to marry soon. Like many of his military comrades from Saskatchewan, he was a farmer.

He left for service overseas from Halifax on February 21, 1918 aboard the Saxonia. By May, he was fighting in France with the 28th Battalion. His battalion was part of a major turning point in the war, the Battle of Amiens. By the end of August 1918, 50,000 enemy troops had been captured and the German army had been driven from its defensive positions.

On August 13, 1918, Douglas Warlow suffered a shrapnel wound to his back. The doctor advised not removing a piece of shrapnel which was lodged behind the vertebrae. By October the wound had healed, and Douglas left the hospital in Epsom and returned to the front lines. On December 23, 1918, he was injured by a bullet wound to his windpipe which left a permanent scar.

He returned to Canada on December 23, 1918. When he was discharged in Regina on February 4, 1919, he still had the shrapnel in his back.

Douglas married Annie Grace Hartling from Nova Scotia. They had a son, Don Jr. Following their marriage, the couple farmed in the Ardath area for a number of years before moving to Carragana, Saskatchewan.

The British Columbia Archives recorded the death of Douglas Edgar Warlow in Vancouver on January 3, 1968, at the age of 73. He is buried in the Mountain View Cemetery in Hope, BC.

WATERLOW (WATERLOO), Eric P.

WWI

Eric was born in Marylebone, Middlesex, England on November 4, 1893, to Herbert and Mary Waterlow. They came to Canada in 1913. He originally joined the 3rd Division Cavalry on December 29, 1914, in Regina, Saskatchewan.

In 1916, he married Alice Stevens in Regina. His occupation was listed as "plasterer". He returned to England and received Royal Aero Club Aviators certificate on June 8, 1917. He served in Belgium with the Royal Flying Corps 25th Squadron. On July 16, 1918, at the age of 25, Captain Eric P. Waterlow M.C. (Military Cross), D.F.C. (Distinguished Flying Cross) was killed in action over Belgium. He is buried at Ypres Reservoir Cemetery in Belgium. He is remembered on a stained glass memorial window at the United Church in Silton, Saskatchewan.

WAUD, William Oxley

WWI

William Oxley Waud was born in Bridlington, England on July 22, 1889. He was living in Conquest in 1915 when he enlisted in nearby Outlook on December 4 at the age of 26. His next of kin was his wife Eliza. He served with the Canadian Mounted Rifles in France for almost two years before he was wounded. He was first wounded by a gunshot in his left arm on November 28, 1916. After treatment, he was released and participated in the famous World War I battle at Passchendaele where he was wounded again on October 30, 1917. The second wound was very deep, but by April 8, 1918, the wound had healed. He also suffered from gas poisoning in 1918. Like countless of his colleagues, he experienced what was variously called “hysteria,” “shell shock” and “nervousness” - today called PTSD. William Waud was promoted to sergeant on April 21, 1917 and received the Military Medal on November 30, 1917. He was discharged at the age of 29 on January 16, 1919 in Regina. He returned to Outlook where he joined the Canadian Pacific Railway as a section foreman in 1923. He retired to Brownlee in 1956, and then to Moose Jaw where he was a member of The Royal Canadian Legion, as well as a member of the Canadian Corps of Commissionaires. He was a member of St. Georges Anglican Church. William died in the Moose Jaw Hospital on Sunday, July 14, 1964, at the age of 74.

WILSON, Melville Earl

WWII

Melville was born in Consul, Saskatchewan in 1918. He joined the Army on February 1, 1941 and took truck driver training at Camp Borden, Ontario before sailing on the Sterling Castle from Halifax to Greenock, Scotland. He went on to Borden Camp, England, where he met Mabel Darvill, a member of the Auxiliary Territorial Service, whom he married on June 3, 1944.

After eight months, he was transferred to the Scouts and Snipers with the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry and sent to Italy. He then served in Leghorn and Marseille, France, then Antwerp, Belgium, followed by Harrem and Delshen, Holland until the end of the war. Melville went back to Aldershot, England and was loaded on the New Amsterdam with 1,800 troops enroute for Halifax. He then rode the train to Winnipeg and was home in Napinka on July 3, 1945. Melville was a member of The Royal Canadian Legion Souris Branch 60 before he died in 2008.

WILSON, Samuel Earl

WWI

Samuel Earl Wilson enlisted in the 13th Battalion of the Canadian Light Infantry in Moose Jaw on July 6, 1915. He was eighteen years old and living in Conquest as a farmer at the time. He identified his next of kin as his brother John Wilson and his time and place of birth to be March 12, 1897 in Perth, Ontario. (The Birth Certificate was sworn by his brother John who was 16 years older and living in Conquest.)

Samuel sailed from Halifax aboard the Lapland on October 23, 1915. He served in France with the 13th Battalion during the Battle of the Somme, a struggle described by historian R. C. Feathestonhaugh as "a conflict unprecedented in history. Trenches were captured, recaptured and captured again, while the whole face of the earth for miles was so torn by concentrated artillery as to render familiar scenes unrecognizable." Amid the carnage, Samuel Wilson was diagnosed with both trench fever and enteritis before he suffered gunshot wounds to his right arm and foot on September 19, 1916. He recuperated in a hospital in Manchester.

Samuel Earl Wilson was officially discharged on August 5, 1919 in Regina. He indicated his intention to return to Conquest, but later moved to British Columbia.

He and his wife had three daughters and one son, Bryan who was a member of the RCAF and died in 1997. Samuel was a member of Branch 44 of the Royal Canadian Legion in Vancouver.

Samuel Earl Wilson died in Saanich, BC on May 18, 1968 at the age of 70, and is buried in the Veterans Cemetery.

WILSON, William Byron

WWI

William Byron Wilson was born in Marryinghurst, near Pilot Mound, Manitoba on November 18, 1897, to James Austin and Mary Etta (Elsy) Wilson. He attended a one-room school near his parents' farm and later farmed until he enlisted in Brandon on October 27, 1915, at the age of eighteen.

He sailed from Halifax on May 24, 1916 aboard the SS Lapland. As a member of the 43rd Battalion, he landed in France on June 29, 1916.

The 43rd (the Cameron Highlanders) was part of the Somme Offensive, one of the deadliest battles in human history. William was only in the field about two months before he suffered a gunshot wound to his left thigh on August 13. He was hospitalized for nine days in France before being transferred to England where it took nine months to recover in various hospitals.

He spent the remainder of the war in England before returning to Canada on January 13, 1919 aboard the Empress of Britain.

After the war, he moved to Bounty, Saskatchewan where he worked at various jobs: farming, grain buyer for Western Grain Elevator, and Massey Harris salesman.

He married Caroline Alvina Seidler and they had two sons: Dwayne James and Gerald Byron. William and Caroline owned the Bounty Hotel until 1953 when they moved to Crystal City, Manitoba.

He died suddenly on December 9, 1960, at the age of 63. William Byron Wilson is buried in the Pilot Mount Cemetery.

ZERR, Leo Carl

WWII

Leo was born in Marchwell, Saskatchewan, on March 20, 1921. He enlisted in the Air Force on May 19, 1941, as an aero engine mechanic, serving in several areas in Canada on engine overhauls, aircraft assembly, and servicing aircrafts. He was discharged in December 1945, when he was transferred to Class "E" of Reserve 14. He went back to finish his high school education and went on to university, graduating as a petroleum engineer. In 1945, he married Connie and they had two children. Connie and Leo made their home in Calgary, where he enjoyed a few years of retirement before passing away in Calgary on August 7, 1992.

ZINKMAN, John

John was born in Regina, Saskatchewan, on April 21, 1915. He joined the Canadian number 6 Group "Ghost Squadron" RCAF on June 1, 1942, serving as a navigator of Halifax and Lancaster bombers. He completed an operational tour of 32 combat flights over Germany, occupied France and Norway. He was stationed with the Ghost Squadron in England, and survived a crash landing of his bomber, as well as attacks by ME 262 Jet Fighters and single and twin engine German Fighters. He was discharged on April 7, 1945. He farmed in the Broadview district and joined VLA as a credit adviser and earned his AACL certificate as an appraiser. He married Verna Petrie in 1941 and raised three children: Norman, Ronald and Deborah. John passed away on February 4, 2007.
