National Youth Remembrance Contests

All forms regarding the contest are available as a fillable PDF. Saskatchewan Command encourages filling the electronic versions rather than the physical copies to ensure accuracy in names. Please also use the "Entry Form" when determining the name of a student. Do not assume the spelling of a name. Contact the school if you're unsure.

Winners

Once the Provincial Winners have been sent off to Dominion Command, Saskatchewan Command will begin to process prizes.

The cheques will be addressed to the local branch and sent with the certificates. Each branch is responsible for cashing the cheques immediately after receiving them. They then award the cash award and certificates to the winning students.

Zone Responsibilities

Zone Commanders will receive the branch level submissions from all participating branches in your designated zone.

Each Zone Commander is responsible for collecting the following information for each submission into the Legion's National Youth Remembrance Contest;

- The National Youth Remembrance Contests submissions that placed first at the branch level.
- The COMPLETED, LEGIBLE, and SIGNED entry form, attached to the back of each submission. Ensure ALL information is filled out and is correct. Contact the school if you're unsure.
- National Youth Remembrance Contests branch form that is filled out and legible. Ensure it's correct (spelling, students information, branch name name/number, and their marked in the correct categories)
- National Youth Remembrance Contests Statistics form is filled out and legible.

Once you have received all the information above from the branches, you may proceed with judging within your zone. Ensure all names are out of sight.

Once you have completed judging within your zone, the following will need to be sent to your District Commander.

- The National Youth Remembrance Contests submissions that placed first at the zone level.
- The COMPLETED, LEGIBLE, and SIGNED entry form, attached to the back of each submission. Ensure NO information is missing.
- National Youth Remembrance Contests form that is filled out and legible at the zone level.
- National Youth Remembrance Contests Statistics form filled out and legible at the zone level.
- Completed National Youth Remembrance Contests Statistics received from ALL the branches.
